'Snark' Fired At Canaveral Testing Site

Army Pushes Ahead
In Effort For More
'Moon' Launchings

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The disappearance of Explorer V still was an apparent mystery today. The Army forged ahead with plans for two more satellite launchings.

The Army still had no official comment on the cause of the latest failure two days after a powerful Jupiter-C rocket roared skyward on what appeared to be a perfect launching.

One spokesman said it may take several more days before complete telemetry reports on the flight are analyzed and the answer found. The military usually withholds these announcements.

In the only activity Monday, a Snark intercontinental guided missile blasted into the night on the start of a 6,000-mile journey across the Atlantic. The trip toward target took about 10 hours. The results of the test were not announced.

The 69-foot Snark, was fired by crewmen of the 556th Guided Missile Squadron of the Strategic Air Command.

The Snark probably will be assigned as the first Snark operational unit which is expected to be set up at Presque Isle, Maine.

Explorer V was equipped to probe "far reaches of a severe radiation field now being investigated by Explorer IV as it whirled through space.

Scientists need more detailed information about the radiation belt so they can protect the first space travelers against the bombardment of the rays.

Scientists already have learned that the rays double in intensity every 60 miles, but the cause, extent and type of radiation still is not known.

The radiation belt starts about 600 miles in space. Where it ends is not known.

Survival Gear Of Plane Falls Near Children

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Survival gear from a passing military plane crashed to the ground within a few feet of two children Monday, but they were unharmed.

Mrs. Cecil E. Hanks saw the objects drop from the sky, one 30-pound kit striking near Drew Nesmith, 6, and Mary Garrett, 5.

A fizzing bottle of carbon dioxide landed in the Garrett yard. The gas is used for inflating life rafts.

The equipment fell from a KB50 Air Force tanker which had just taken off from Birmingham. The plane returned to the Municipal Airport when the pilot realized something had happened to the equipment, which was fastened to the outside of the aircraft.

Reading Strike Set This Week

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — Some 700 members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers employed on the Reading Railroad today were authorized to strike beginning at 4 a.m. Thursday.

The authorization was made by Grand Chief Engineer Guy L. Brown from his Cleveland headquarters.

Brown said he called the strike because negotiations with the Reading management dating back to Nov. 26, 1956, have failed to result in a settlement.

Kennedy Cites Goons

Dispute Shaping Up In Teamster Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate committee returned to its probe of the Teamsters Union today as a dispute shaped up between the other groups appointed to check on alleged corruption in the big truck union.

In advance of the Senate hearing, Rackets Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy said this phase of the probe would center on what he called goon squad violence, misuse of funds and abuse of power in St. Louis area Teamsters affairs bossed by Harold Gibbons.

Gibbons, executive vice president of the Teamsters Union, holds top command of its operations in the St. Louis region. He also is top lieutenant to Teamsters President James R. Hoffa.

Meanwhile, one member of a three-man monitors board, appointed by a federal court here to keep tabs on the Teamsters, described as "an outrageous thing" Hoffa's creation of a separate commission to investigate corruption charges against his union.

Godfrey P. Schmidt said in New York that "Hoffa can now say the monitors are no longer necessary because the union has got its own watchdogs. This is a typical piece of complicated Hoffa conspiracy."

Schmidt said the monitors have demanded that Hoffa give them a full explanation of all arrangements that went into forming the commission, headed by former Republican Sen. George H. Bender of Ohio.

Furthermore, Schmidt indicated a protest may be made to Federal Dist. Judge F. Dickinson Letts. Letts earlier this year appointed the monitors to watch over the union operations. He did so in a compromise settlement of a suit by a group of dissident Teamsters members who sought to upset Hoffa's election as Teamsters president.

Bender told a news conference Judge Letts welcomed establishment of the commission which Hoffa announced last Saturday. He also said he saw no conflict between his commission and the monitors and that he would cooperate with them.

In pledging to conduct a thorough probe of the Teamsters, Bender said he was confident Hoffa will follow any cleanup recommendations the commission will make.

"I agreed to serve only after assurance from Mr. Hoffa and his attorneys that I will have a free hand to act as I see fit," Bender said.

Outer Space Rocket Arouses Alarm Until Youths Confess

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP)—You up lately. The press played it big, to make the device look as if it can come out now, earth people. That rocket from outer space came from a teen-ager's basement.

The thing turned up on Ruel H. Barrus' lawn last weekend—still smoking. It was a rocket-shaped aluminum cylinder 10 inches long and 3 across. Its crumpled nose was buried deep in the dirt, and its burned outer shell suggested the kind of heat a rocket might encounter on hitting the earth's atmosphere.

The find caused a stir in this east Idaho community, where flying saucer reports have turned

China Reds Again Shell Chiang Isle

Tempo Stepped Up
As Quemoy Pounded
By Mainland Guns

BULLETIN

TOKYO—(UPI)—The U.S. 5th Air Force in Japan has been put on an alert status, a spokesman said today.

U.S. Naval forces in Japan announced Monday that its forces were increasing their state of alert.

By SPENCER MOOSA

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Communists bombarded Quemoy in furious bursts for the fourth straight day today, again increasing the volume of shells poured into the little Chinese Nationalist outpost island.

The bombardment which some officials feared was a prelude to invasion of the Nationalist offshore islands, began with about 80,000 shells over the weekend but subsided Monday to some 2,900 shots. Today the Reds stepped up the tempo again.

U. S. Fleet On Alert

In three rounds of shelling from the nearby mainland beginning shortly after midnight, the Communists hit Quemoy and the nearby Taan Islands about 330 times, the Nationalist Defense Ministry said. Then in 2 hours and 40 minutes of early afternoon some 5,500 shells crashed down on the heavily fortified islands.

With the U. S. 7th Fleet already on the alert, a landing force of 1,600 men from the 3rd Marine Division was ordered to sail from Singapore. The destination of the four attack transports and four accompanying ships was not disclosed, but it was assumed they were moving closer to Formosa.

The 7th Fleet is pledged to protect Formosa but not necessarily Quemoy or the offshore islands. Officials in Washington said close watch was being kept on the set-up in the Communist attack.

Maj. Gen. Thomas F. Moorman, commander of the U. S. 13th Air Force based in the Philippines, visited Formosa for talks with top Nationalist and U. S. military assistance officers.

Red Forces Repulsed

Nationalist authorities were paying increasing attention to the possibility that the Communists would try to seize Tungting Island, 17 miles south of Quemoy. The Defense Ministry said two Red attempts Sunday to land troops on the tiny, rocky island were repulsed by Nationalist warships. Officials suspected, however, that the Communists might not have given up.

Tungting is used by the Nationalists to keep tab on ships trying to sneak out of Amoy, the Communist port opposite Quemoy, so Nationalist warships can be alerted to intercept them. Its capture would help the Reds evade Nationalist blockades. The island is believed fairly well fortified and garrisoned by the Nationalists.

Big Airliner Forced Down

CUT BANK, Mont. (AP) — A Trans World Airlines Super-Constellation with 61 persons aboard was forced down by a burning engine Monday night at this northern Montana town.

One man, Wilfred Price of San Francisco, was injured when he jumped from the plane as it rolled to a stop.

The four-engine plane set a grass fire, but firemen controlled the blaze. The rest of the passengers and crew escaped injury.

France Takes Stern Action In Terrorism

PARIS (AP)—Security officials promised stern measures today against Algerian terrorists who attacked oil depots and other installations across France to back up demands for independence of their North African homeland.

French soldiers were posted around a number of key points. A previously planned special brigade was inaugurated to coordinate the campaign against terrorism.

Officials at the Ministry of Interior declined to reveal any other plans to meet possible repetitions of the bombings, burnings and shootings which occurred before dawn Monday.

Four police and at least five terrorists were killed. The attacks followed the pattern of rebel strikes in the almost four-year-old civil war across the Mediterranean in Algeria.

Authorities blamed the wave of terrorism on the group that dominates rebel activity in Algeria, the National Liberation Front (FLN). It has a strong underground among the 400,000 Algerians who have left their impoverished countryside to work in France.

Premier de Gaulle will visit Algeria later this week on his tour seeking votes for a new constitution that would keep Algeria as part of France. The attacks obviously were timed to draw attention to rebel opposition to the constitution. The FLN is urging Algerians to boycott the referendum.

'Nautilus' Crew, Officers Enjoy Holiday In N. Y.

NEW YORK (AP)—Proud officers and crew of the atomic submarine Nautilus enjoyed a holiday on the town today with their families and friends.

At the Brooklyn Navy Yard, a fourth of the ship's complement of 12 officers and 97 men maintained a watch on the craft which crossed under the North Pole icecap to history.

The blue-black sub is berthed for dockside view by the public today and Wednesday. She cannot be boarded.

New York's three-day welcome will continue Wednesday with the honor the city traditionally extends to conquering heroes — a ticker tape parade.

Monitors Want Hoffa Explain

WASHINGTON (AP) — Court-appointed monitors keeping watch over the scandal-stained Teamsters Union demanded an explanation today of what its president, James R. Hoffa, is up to in creating his own commission to hunt down racketeers.

The board instructed Hoffa to furnish by Aug. 28 a detailed report concerning the reasons, the commission's powers and duties, its proposed procedures, and its proposed relationship to the board of monitors.

Diana Claims Money Taken

LONDON (AP) — Movie actress Diana Dors told police today 11,000 pounds — $30,800 — are missing from her safe deposit box.

Police said they wanted to question a man — his name was not disclosed — who presumably shared a key to the box.

Ike Expected To Sign Bill For SS Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration sources said today President Eisenhower is expected to sign the bill increasing Social Security benefits by about 7 per cent.

Eisenhower may, however, strongly criticize provisions increasing the federal grant contribution to public assistance programs run by the states.

Persons in position to know said both the President and Secretary of Welfare Planning have strong feelings against increasing the federal share in supporting such programs benefiting the aged, dependent children, the blind and totally disabled.

But these sources said it has been decided the merits of the legislation outweigh the demerits.

Though they did not mention it, this is an election year and practical politics is a likely factor.

50 Reported Hurt In Bus

COOK, Ind. (UPI) — At least 50 persons were injured, eight of them critically, when a Greyhound bus rammed into the back of a semi-trailer truck at high speed and veered into a field.

All of the seriously hurt were rushed to St. Margaret's Hospital in nearby Hammond, Ind.

Authorities said the bus driver, who was among the critically hurt, was pinned in the bus and 20 men needed to pry him free. There were no reports of fatalities.

All available emergency equipment in the area was rushed to the crash scene to shuttle the injured to hospitals at Hammond, Gary and Crown Point.

Simpson Says Labor Bosses Blocked Bill

CHICAGO (AP)—Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa.) told members of the Republican National Committee today that Democratic leaders in Congress blocked all labor legislation this year to failure of Congress to pass any measure to curb labor racketeering.

"Walter Reuther, David McDonald and other bigwigs in the labor hierarchy did not want restrictions imposed on their reckless activities," Simpson said, "so they simply passed the word down to those who serve them in the Senate and the House."

Simpson, chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, echoed a keynote

6-Day Delay Seen Taking Tension Off

Legislature Meets
To Take Action In Integration Crisis

BULLETIN

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI) — The Little Rock School Board today urged the U.S. Supreme Court to deny a petition which would allow integration to proceed at Central High School.

The school board told the high court the "emotional pitch" of the community was such that troops would again be required if Negroes are allowed to attend school once more this year, and they would be in "physical danger."

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus today called upon the Arkansas Legislature in special integration session "to defend our rights against those who would usurp them."

In a prepared speech, Faubus urged no surrender.

By The Associated Press
A six-day delay in the school opening date at tense Little Rock provided a brief breathing spell today for Arkansas legislators and U. S. Supreme Court justices considering the involved integration crisis.

On the eve of today's special session of the Arkansas Legislature, the Board of Education announced the entire Little Rock public school system would remain closed until Sept. 8. The schools had been scheduled to open Sept. 2.

Court Meets Thursday
The action was taken only a few hours after the Supreme Court decided to hold an emergency session Thursday to determine whether to allow or forbid immediate mixing of the races in the Little Rock schools.

Board President Wayne Upton said it was hoped the postponement would "remove the pressure of shortage of time for both the Supreme Court . . . and the Arkansas Legislature."

Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas urged the high court to show patience and grant time in the case of Little Rock's Central High School. Otherwise, he has prepared legislation to close the school entirely.

Meanwhile, School Supt. Virgil Blossom said two more Negro male pupils have applied for registration at Central High and a third—a 14-year-old girl — has sought admission to previously all-white Hall High.

Blossom indicated the three applications would be denied until the Supreme Court decided whether seven other Negroes should re-enter Central.

The expected Supreme Court decision also would affect integration in Norfolk, Va., schools which open Sept. 8. Federal Dist. Judge Walter E. Hoffman told the school board there to reconsider the rejected applications of 151 Negroes who asked admission to white schools. He asked the board to re-

Kite Employed To Get Panties From Flagpole

STARKVILLE, Miss. (AP)—A kite was used at Mississippi State University to dislodge a pair of blue panties from a campus flagpole.

Aerodynamicist J. J. Cornish III told of the stunt in a paper released by the school Monday. The feminine panties had been hoisted to the top of the drill field staff and the halyard cut so they couldn't be hauled down.

Cornish said a fish hook was attached to a kite string, the kite was maneuvered into the position, and the panties were hooked and drawn down.

The title of the paper: "A modern application for an ancient aerodynamic tool."

Dean Of Composers Succumbs In London

LONDON (AP) — Ralph Vaughan-Williams, dean of British composers, died early today. He was 85. Vaughan-Williams, one of the 20th century's leading composers, was writing music at his London home up to Monday.

He wrote his first symphony in 1907 and his last, No. 9, early this year.

British Bank Offers Loans, No Security

LONDON (UPI)—One of Britain's biggest banks, easing the postwar credit squeeze, offered today to lend "good steady customers" as much as $1,400 without security and at only 5 per cent interest.

Former Labor Minister Lord Monckton, chairman of the board of the Midland Bank, announced the new credit policy will be effective next Monday.

Others of Britain's "big five" banks are expected to join the Midland soon in offering unsecured loans to their depositors. The easy credit policy probably will force down the interest rates charged by British finance companies.

Comparable personal credit service has been available to U.S. depositors for years, but austerely-minded British governments have imposed restrictions that have made it virtually impossible for individuals in this country to borrow money even if they have collateral.

Lebanon Official Slain On Street

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—A gunman today shot and killed Abdullah Nurallah, secretary of the Lebanese industrialist organization, in one of Beirut's traffic-jammed streets.

Nurallah was shot while leaving his car near a friend's office. Nurallah resigned a year ago as secretary of the Najjada party, a Lebanese paramilitary organization now joined with the rebels.

Meanwhile, U. S. troops and tanks took up positions next to rebel outposts along the road between Beirut and International Airport.

Last Fling At Summer May Cause 420 Deaths

CHICAGO (UPI)—The National Safety Council warned today that a "frantic last fling at summer" may lure 420 persons to their deaths on the nation's highways during the Labor Day weekend.

It said "cold statistics" indicate that 12,000 other persons may suffer disabling injuries in accidents between 6 p. m. Friday and midnight Monday.

Fishy Situation In Bronx Area Breath-Taking

NEW YORK (AP)—A fishy situation in a Bronx neighborhood has caused its residents to wonder, with bated breath, what next?

First it was a 300-pound, nine-foot shark. Slit down the belly, jaw and teeth removed, it was found lying on the pavement in the Bronx.

The Sanitation Department hauled the shark away.

The air had begun to clear when the Bronxites sensed something further afield.

Hanging from a nearby lamppost, 30 feet above the sidewalk, an eight-foot porpoise was found Monday night.

Once again, the Sanitation Department went to the rescue.

Doctor Doubtful Cure For Cancer Ever Developed

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI)—It is highly improbable that a cancer cure ever will be found, Sir McFarlane Burnet, world-famous Australian scientist, said today on his return from cancer conferences in London, Stockholm and Toronto.

"I do not want to be discouraging, but when it comes to cancer cures, I am definitely a skeptic," Burnet said.

There has been great progress in easing suffering of cancer victims, he said, but it is "foolish" to talk of a cure being "just around the corner."

Students Rebel Over Bus Hike

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Rebellious students were barricaded on the University of Mexico's modernistic campus today, calling for a monster rally tonight in support of their war on the capital's bus system.

The students blocked off entrances to the campus with buses which they seized over the weekend.

The student rebellion started last week as a protest against a small hike in bus fares, which was ordered to pay bus drivers higher salaries.

Hoffman said recently that he would not order Norfolk schools desegregated if the Supreme Court permitted a delay in Little Rock.

Board Denies Applications

At Richmond, the Virginia Pupil Placement Board denied all Negro applications for transfer to white schools in Arlington and Newport News. Apparently 27 Negroes were involved but exact figures were not available.

In other developments, plans were being made for mixed classes in schools at Nashville and Clinton, Tenn.

First-grade pupils began enrolling for integrated classes at several Nashville schools for the second year in a row. Second-grade pupils, including those starting their second year of mixed classes, will enroll later. Schools open Sept. 8.

Police and school authorities said they expected no disturbances.

W. D. Human, principal of Clinton High, said six Negro girls registered as freshmen and that four other Negro girls are returning.

Two years ago Clinton High became the state's first public school to integrate. Violence flared and state troopers and National Guardsmen were called to restore order.

Court To Get Virginia Race Barrier Case

HARRISONBURG, Va. (AP)—Virginia's last-ditch legal maneuver to avoid mixing of the races in public schools shifted today to a federal courtroom in this Shenandoah Valley town.

Attorneys for the Charlottesville school board planned to ask Judge John Paul to declare valid a new school district created under the board's local pupil assignment plan. All 30 Negro applicants to the city's white schools, which open next Tuesday, live in the new district.

Two developments darkened segregationist hopes of legally averting racial integration without having to resort to the state's declared policy of closing integrated schools.

The State Pupil Placement Board denied the applications of all Negroes seeking entry to white schools in Arlington and Newport News.

At Norfolk, Federal Dist. Judge Walter E. Hoffman instructed the city school board to re-examine 151 applications from Negro pupils which it turned down last week.

There appeared little hope of resolving any part of the conflict here in the light of Judge Paul's earlier statement that the new Charlottesville school district appeared to be a case of gerrymandering and that he would be inclined to ignore it if and when he made pupil assignments.

In a ruling Aug. 11 Paul said Negro applicants should comply with the city's pupil assignment plan but if this plan proved discriminatory he might take over the assignments himself.

While Judge Hoffman has said he would not take over assignments in Norfolk, he made it plain Monday what he considered improper grounds for denying Negro applicants. He ordered the school board to re-examine the 151 applications and report back to his court Friday.

Hoffman particularly stressed 16 applications which he said were turned down solely because of the racial factor.

Biochemist Dies

WOODS HOLE, Mass. (UPI)—Dr. G. H. A. Clowes, 80, of Indianapolis, internationally famed biochemist, died Monday at his summer home.

Harriman And Rockefeller Battle For Governor Post

NEW YORK (UPI)—Multimillionaires Nelson A. Rockefeller and Averell Harriman were their parties' unanimous choices today to battle it out for the governorship of New York.

Republicans convened at Rochester Monday and nominated the 50-year-old Rockefeller to run against Democratic incumbent Harriman, 66, who was nominated by acclamation at the Democratic state convention at Buffalo.

Before both parties end their conventions tonight, they will choose candidates for the United States Senate.

The field of six announced candidates for the Democratic nomination was rumored to be narrowed down to New York City's crime-busting district attorney, Frank S. Hogan.

But there were persistent attempts to "draft" New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner despite his repeated statements he was not a candidate.

Besides Hogan, Democratic hopefuls for the nomination are former Postmaster General James A. Farley, former Air Secretary Thomas K. Finletter, former Atomic Energy Commissioner Thomas E. Murray, state Commerce Commissioner Edward Dickenson and Rep. James Delaney of Queens County.

Rockefeller today took charge of lining up his running mates. He asked Rep. Kenneth Keating, 58, to run for senator and Keating, said to be reluctant to make the race, was reported "weakening" to Rockefeller's overtures.

There were no openly enthusiastic candidates for the Republican nomination.

Hotel Fired, Two Killed

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—A pre-dawn fire killed two persons and injured three others in a small hotel here today. Fire Chief William Fitzgerald blamed an arsonist, who has started at least 36 other blazes in two weeks.

Police said there were 22 persons in the Hollywood Hotel, at 1st and Stewart Sts. when the blaze broke out at 2:15 a.m.

The series of fires, mostly in Seattle's southend Skid Row district, has kept firemen and police on constant alert. The arsonist has not been found. Until today's blaze, none of the fires caused fatalities.

Surgeons Seek To Save Woman's Unborn Child

NEVADA, Mo. (UPI)—Doctors hoped today to save the unborn child of a pregnant woman injured in a two-car collision that took the lives of eight persons.

Two persons were critically injured in the accident near Harrisonville, Mo., Monday night but efforts were concentrated on saving the life of the yet unborn child.

The crash of two speeding cars started Mrs. Myrtle Calloway on a possible premature delivery in the seventh month of her pregnancy. Dr. L. C. McCann said early today Mrs. Calloway was resting comfortably and "her pains seem to have settled."

Mrs. Calloway was also the mother of 14-year-old Ricky Lee Calloway, of Nevada, one of the dead.

Others killed were: Maurice Edward Jones, Kansas City, Kan., and his brother, Norman W. Jones, 36, of Huntington Park, Calif., who were riding the southbound automobile; and Andrew W. Jones, 34, Sun Valley, Calif., his wife, Letha, 30, and their children, Larry, 9, and Susan, 5, and Earl R. Jones, 52, Nevada, brother of Andrew Jones.

Critically injured besides the pregnant woman was Charles Leo Jones, 14, of Nevada, who was riding in the northbound auto.

Highway patrolmen blamed speed for the crash.

The native of Wheeling was graduated from Mount St. Mary's College at Emmitsburg, Md., and received his law degree from West Virginia University.

Man Will Go On Trial For Slaying Of Bride
DENTON, Md. (AP) — Clayton said he could get into trouble at E. Breeding, accused of first degree murder in the death of a teen-age bride, has been ruled mentally capable of standing trial after an examination at Spring Grove State Hospital.
The 26-year-old defendant had been sent to the hospital at the request of his court-appointed attorney, Marvin H. Smith.
State's Atty. James A. Wise of Caroline County said Breeding has been returned to the county jail, where pending arraignment. Wise said he and Smith would confer with Judge J. DeWeese Carter this week about a possible arraignment date.
Breeding is charged in the slaying of 19-year-old Mrs. Ruth Ellen Cannon of Burrowsville. Her body was found in a wooded area near her home June 28. Breeding was arrested in Newark, Del. July 21 and was returned to Maryland after he waived extradition.

Inspection At Hopemont To Be Aired
Bean Disagrees With Governor On Public Safety Secrecy Call
CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—State Police Supt. Hazen H. Fair and retired State Police veteran E. D. Bazzie of Princeton were scheduled to appear today before the Legislature's main interim committee opening an investigation into activities of the State Department of Public Safety.
Also to be heard by the joint Committee on Government and Finance today was a report on an inspection last week at Hopemont Sanitarium, near Terra Alta, Preston County, and a report on State Road Commission finances.
The appearance of Fair and Bazzie is an outgrowth of protests received following Bazzie's transfer, demotion and subsequent retirement several weeks ago.
In a five-page letter to the committee Monday night, Gov. Cecil H. Underwood asked that internal activities of the department be barred from the press. He said publication of such activities "could be used by felons, criminals, and lawbreakers to their decided advantage."
Senate President Ralph J. Bean (D-Hardy), who disagreed with Underwood, said such activities should be made public because "they affect every citizen in West Virginia."
A recommendation for a 50-percent increase in operating funds for the Public Service Commission was approved Monday by the joint committee and the commission on Interstate Cooperation.
The joint committees were told Monday afternoon by Public Service Commissioner Hillis Townsend that two big gas companies are expected to request new rate increases next year.
Townsend said the PSC had received a letter from Manufacturers Light & Heat Co. stating that wholesalers planned to ask the Federal Power Commission for higher rates later this year. This firm serves some 48,000 customers in northern West Virginia.
United Fuel Gas Co. purchases gas from the same wholesalers and now has an application before the PSC for a rate of $4.067,000 which was filed in 1957. The UFG serves 117,000 customers in the southern portion of the state.

OUR COUNTRY

The union of hearts, the union of hands and the flag of our Union forever.—Morris.

Vital Element

WHEN THE FRENCH vote September 28 on whether or not to adopt sweeping constitutional reforms, it will be their test far more than it will be Premier Charles de Gaulle's. At his coming to power in June, it was widely said of De Gaulle that he would stand or fall on the issues of constitutional reform and a solution of the crippling Algerian crisis. But this is really looking at things through the wrong end of the glass. The French turned to De Gaulle, not he to them. He accepted the assignment as evidence that a spirit of desperation was upon the French. He assumed, quite plausibly, that they were ready for drastic measures, since the alternatives seemed to be a kind of hopeless, muddling chaos or a swift stroke of rebellion that might ultimately put the Communists in power.

FRANCE'S CALL for De Gaulle was really only a preliminary decision. The big choice confronts them in September. The constitution they will have to take or reject is being hammered out now, and it appears certain to be far stronger in structure than any the French have known in the 20th century. Knowing this is their only chance to modify its terms, the forces in France which traditionally counsel division and weakness in government are battling tirelessly to soften the new document. But thus far De Gaulle has stoutly resisted debilitating changes.

UNDER PROVISIONS which seem likely to stand up until voting time, the power of French president (now largely a figurehead) would be greatly enhanced, and that of parliament correspondingly reduced. The two branches of government would be sharply separated. And in times of danger to the nation, the president could take full powers of action until himself upon his own discretion. This is pretty heady medicine for the French, who are so long committed to the notion that inaction and delay somehow constitute desirable policy. Whether they will swallow it, no one dares to predict with assurance. As they come up against their crucial moment, it will not be they alone whose future is entangled in the outcome. The full vigor of France's inventive spirit and the full strength and power of its people and resources are a vital element in the free family of nations.

Secrecy?

OUR BIG COMPLEX security machinery sometimes gets tangled up with some pretty small fry in the effort to protect us against the probing enemy. We heard about a slim little five-year-old lad who quite harmlessly blurted out that his daddy worked in a certain defense establishment. The boy's family was subjected to the sharpest scrutiny for the next couple of weeks. Nothing was turned up, of course. But the warning signals are posted. The lad has been cautioned to the point where it's a wonder he admits his daddy works at all. Yet a child's sense of the dramatic is strong. Ask him now where his father works. He casts furtive glances about, lowers his voice and says: "It's a secret—but I'll tell." Take it easy, you security fellows. We know where he got that one. From the average senator or congressman who has just left a closed-door meeting after pledging himself to secrecy.

The Persian Gulf

IF THE IRAQ government has its way, the Persian Gulf will henceforth be known as the Gulf of Arabia. But the change will doubtless be resisted by other states—notably Iran, which used to be Persia—that touch upon this ocean landmark. Similar attempts have often been made to use names as political weapons. In World War I, for example, the Germans sought to annex the French iron fields and rechristened the area West Franconia. That didn't last long. Napoleon was a great name changer. He called Holland and Switzerland the Batavian and Helvetian Republics. The changes did not survive his short-lived supremacy, however. It seems safe to predict that a like early death will be the fate of the name, Gulf of Arabia.

You Can Eat Your Way Back To Youth

NEW YORK — You rarely see a gray-haired dog.

This ladies and gentlemen, is significant.

For one thing, it indicates that dogs are not given to excessive worrying.

But more important, it signifies that a dog, on a diet of bones and fortified meat from heaven knows what animals, remains younger looking than a human on whatever a gray-haired human eats.

"WE MAY credit poorly balanced nutrition with being responsible for many of the changes which we are accustomed to call 'senility'—among these, gray hair and wrinkled skin," quoth the authority.

"A new good sense of nutrition holds the promise of prolonging the characteristics of youth far into the years when we now ordinarily disintegrate, limb by limb. Diet isn't the only answer to a head of hair that doesn't turn gray—or a skin that remains unwrinkled in so-called old age—but it's a great big factor."

The authority, who'd like to put the tint and dye specialists out of business (let 'em sell vitamins), is Dr. Carlton Fredericks.

He's a nutritionist whose radio program "Living Should Be Fun" has been driving women to drink (blended vegetable juices, clam cocktail, ad-odidies) for many years.

"MY OBJECTIVE in presenting a tested, and often successful, anti-gray hair vitamin formula is not a cosmetic one," he says. "Gray hair can be quickly re-colored with dyes."

"But it has been my experience that many of the gray-haired men and women, can not only recolor their hair with vitamin supplementing C, J, X simultaneously, the systemic effect of the vitamins creates a feeling of well being which often has the effect of turning the years back."

IT DOESN'T promise eternal youth. . . "even if you could eat yourself to 150," Dr. Fredericks points out, "you wouldn't like it; all those prejudices you'd have built up. . . but by eating well, the characteristics of youth are not as fleeting."

THE DIET should include: The usual, well-balanced food selection—with particular emphasis on the following foods. Milk, oysters, shrimps, clams, liver, sweetbreads, whole wheat, whole rye, brewer's yeast, pork and ham.

As daily vitamin-supplements, the anti-gray hair formula should be constituted of: 100 mg. para-amino-benzoic-acid; 30 mg. calcium pantothenate; 2 grams, choline, in a natural B-complex base fortified with additional B vitamins.

"A FINAL word," says Dr. Fredericks. "It may have taken years to gray your hair. Don't expect results in a few weeks. Six months is a more realistic trial period."

"Once the hair has grown in its normal color, continue the diet and the vitamins for another month. Then cease the vitamins. If grayness appears again, it will be necessary to use the vitamins indefinitely."

IT MUST BE remembered, the nutritionist remembered, that the vitamins have this action on hair coloring because they stimulate the functioning of the glands; hence, should your hair ungray itself, you may feel fairly confident that not only are you cheating the beauty parlors out of cash, you are keeping your glands from loafing on the job.

Congress Score Poor On Reform Type Laws

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — In complimenting Congress for its accomplishments this year, the list of things Congress should have done but did not do must also be given consideration.

Some of the things Congress might have done but did not do were good. For instance—not going completely hog-wild on anti-recession spending and not cutting taxes to make the budget deficit worse than it is. But some of the things Congress did not do were not so good.

In general, it was the much-needed reform-type of legislation that went by the boards this year. Because Congress is essentially a conservative body. It doesn't like to change established ways of doing things.

Thus, the Congress by-passed completely the civil rights issue. The desire was to "let things quiet down" after the strife-torn spring term in Little Rock.

The result is that the country now faces September school openings with every indication there will be other incidents which will reflect no credit on anyone.

CONGRESS finally passed a mild welfare and pension fund disclosure act. But it did not pass labor reform legislation. Under the circumstances, this action can probably be credited on the good side of the book.

For the bill which the Senate passed, 83 to 1, after complete revision by amendment on the floor, was not a good bill. It did not begin to correct any of the union scandals which Senator John L. McClellan's special investigating committee has brought out in the past year.

The public had every right to expect action in this field this year. But the job of getting anything done on labor reform legislation is delayed until next session.

In spite of other congressional investigating committee disclosures in the Sherman Adams-Bernard Goldfine case, and of improper attempts to influence government regulatory agencies, nothing was done to correct these abuses or prevent their repetition in the future.

THE SENATE had its choice of three bills by Senators Douglas, Case and Neuberger to establish codes and then gave up for the year.

The House Commerce Committee under Rep. Oren Harris held one meeting on legislation to curb political influence and then gave up for the year.

Why dig up all this dirt, if it isn't cleaned up?

The presidential disability act got no place. President Eisenhower has for two years recommended a constitutional amendment authorizing the cabinet to determine if the president is unable to carry out his duties and to hand these powers to the vice president in an emergency. Congress just couldn't see it, though the country may face this situation at any time.

ELECTION law reforms are another piece of important but unfinished business carried over from last year.

After disclosures by Senator Francis Case of important attempts to influence his vote on natural gas legislation, there was a righteous rash of bills introduced to control political campaign contributions.

Senate Leaders Lyndon Johnson and William F. Knowland joined forces to sponsor a bipartisan election reform bill. Eighty-three senators signed it as co-sponsors. It was an empty display of virtue. As soon as the scandal was forgotten, the bill was too.

The result is that Congress has now gone home to campaign for re-election with no new election reform or campaign funds control legislation on the books.

FRUIT DAMAGE HEAVY—Orchardists in this region estimate that the heavy wind and rain storm earlier this week would result in a loss of approximately one-third of the peach and apple crop.

Glancing Sideways

NEW YORK—Let us now take our leave of the fanciful and fine-spun areas of science fiction and enter a realm of reality no science fiction writer ever dreamed of: a trip to Mars with plasma as our fuel.

It is being worked on, seriously and with evidence to support hope, exactly 21 miles from where this typewriter sits.

Nor need you flinch at a by-product of human blood being used as a space vehicle fuel of the future. The plasma they mean is not blood plasma. This plasma, if I read my notes correctly, is formed when the molecules of a gas are broken down into positive ions and negative electrons by an electric charge. At this point the boys at Republic do venture onto ground broken by science fiction writers.

THE LATTER, for several years, have spoken blithely of space vehicles skittering all over the galaxy on an "ion drive." Well, the plasma drive isn't an ion drive. Positive ions are present, that's all. But so are negative electrons. And they all work like dogs to power a space vehicle in what the Republic savants call the magnetic pinch propulsion plasma motor. No kidding, they do.

THE ENGINE goes this way: there is within it a magnetic field, functioning without pumps, pistons, mechanical motion or other breakable parts. The magnetic field compresses the plasma and squeezes it tightly out of the exhaust, thus creating a thrust energy. Got it? If not, go upstairs to the bathroom, uncup a toothpaste tube and squeeze. The paste you see emerging will be like compressed plasma, only the MPPP engine has less moving parts than the two fingers you used to squeeze the tube.

Now where does the magnetic pinch come from? That's easy. A nuclear reactor (and it can fit into a space vehicle as easily as into an atomic submarine) creates power for the electric system and gives life to the pinch. You fly to Mars, therefore, on a simple, almost fool-proof propulsion system operating on a small amount of nuclear fuel plus some plasmic gas.

WHAT HAVE they so far? More than you'd think. They have elaborate drawings in full, a model about three feet high that works, all of the equations and factors. If you want to know more, and there is much more than this skeletal explanation here, write to Alfred Kunen, Milton Minneman, William McIlroy or Joseph Neuringer.

They are the four scientists who think in terms of Mars and are convinced that a vehicle to the moon will be nothing. Something like throwing an old bottle cap out of a window. The trip to Mars at 34,600,000 miles is their challenge.

Their estimate is that a plasma engine weighing no more than 16,000 pounds complete with holding frame can do the trick. That's only eight tons. Ask how much the oil, gasoline and four engines of a big airliner weigh today when the plane is loaded for a trans-continental or trans-Atlantic flight? Sixteen thousand pounds is a feasible weight.

AT THIS point reporter says thanks, gents, to the plasmic scientists and ventures onto personal grounds. He thinks, and has been told, that any drive capable of sustaining motion would permit an object simply to get off the ground and keep going until it left the gravity field of earth.

If the drive is sustaining it need not give the object an initial speed anything like 25,000 miles an hour. It has only to keep on its way. The pull of gravity would become less and less as the object went farther out.

The ideal all scientists dream of is a vehicle that will simply start and keep going without great initial jet thrusts. The MPPP engine does envision at first a high-thrust surface take off. But even that may be licked in time.

Meanwhile, start remembering the plasma drive as the first seemingly feasible space propulsion means. (McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

And The Rest Is Silence

WASHINGTON — The time has come to recall memories of the 88th Congress. The blasts of air, ranging from merely warm to hot, have been shut off.

The Congress has done its work, and as I look back on the year, I am amazed. Not one single Congressman took a poke at another all session. This is unique.

The gentlemen indulged in no filibusters; no all-night sessions. The Senators worked fairly late a few evenings, trying to get out from under the load of bills numbering better than 10,000 (which mostly they shoved under the rug), but every night they got a good night's sleep.

I OBSERVED them during the final go-around and they all wore pressed pants and clear eyes. Only one who sounded like a suffering bullfrog was the champion speechifier, Wayne Morse who seemed to have been beset by a throat.

The pundits now are writing pieces echoing Speaker Sam Rayburn, who said this was the most productive Congress with which he ever was associated. He's been here for 30 years and that's a compliment. I can add also that no peacetime Congress ever has spent more money.

MY OWN memories of the proceedings feature Rep. Usher Burdick, who denounced the House restaurant for serving boiled string beans every single day, and who then became involved in an on-again, off-again romance which seems at this writing to be back on the beam. To the gentleman, my best wishes.

Sen. Mike Monroney put across his bill to force auto dealers to put the actual selling price on each windshield and no monkey business about it. This they will start doing in October and their association insists they were not, either, forced. They asked for the legislation themselves.

THE PRICE of postage stamps jumped 25 percent, adding to the cost of living, but the gentlemen said they expected the mailmen to give better service. Sen. George A. Smathers held hearings on the plight of the railroads; this was featured by the sight of the private cars of the railway presidents parked bumper to bumper in Union Station.

So many hoodlums passed through the Senate Caucus Room in the labor racket hearings that I usually felt scared, even if the cops did frisk 'em. These babies don't sue if they don't like what you write about 'em; they take action with baseball bats. Happily I never got swatted.

BARNEY Goldfine spent some unhappy weeks in the House Caucus Room, across the park, and managed to spark a national boom in vicuna coats; I hear tell he'll be back for more of the same next month before the Commerce subcommittee. I expect he'll bring his full crew of lawyers, press agents, and beautiful receptionists along. They add much to the otherwise dull life of a capital correspondent.

Sens. Richard L. Neuberger and Strom Thurmond who have no truck with the demon rum, did their dead-levellest to keep airplane passengers from drinking whisky. They got nowhere, but will be back to try again.

LAUGHING on both sides of the capital went on perhaps history's greatest local spending spree, fixing the place up for themselves. This includes new office buildings for their own use, remodeling of the old ones, a new subway for the Senators, and an expanding of the ancient Capitol building, itself.

Total cost now is estimated at something over $200 million—including signs of the zodiac around the ceiling of the Senate Appropriations Committee room. Let us trust this isn't symbolic of the way the money's spent.

I'll miss the gentlemen, all right, and hope that when they return in January, they'll be refreshed and ready for the fray. (United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

So They Say

When I was a boy a juvenile delinquent was a kid who owed eight cents overdue on a library book. Apparently times have changed. —Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.), after Senate passage of bill banning interstate shipment of switchblade knives.

The leadership of the Teamsters is gangster and hoodlum controlled. The highest officials of the union are gangsters or are controlled by gangsters or hoodlums, and there is no way at the present time to deal with them. —Robert F. Kennedy, chief counsel for the Senate Rackets Committee.

I'm not frightened of anybody. —Teamsters Union president James R. Hoffa, to charges he is not tough enough to rid his union of gangster elements.

I just forgot, that's all. —Signalman Frederick Roth, whose failure to throw a stop signal was blamed for train collision near Sleatsburg, N. Y., which killed five persons and injured 35.

Reporter's Notebook

NEW YORK—"I don't believe in drifting," said Dick Powell, "and my only wish is that I'd been born smarter."

"Looking back on my career, it seems like I was always fighting to get out of something and into another. I was always restless, and I still am."

A man with a deceptive easy-going air, Powell, now a kind of strolling Fort Knox, has had a number of careers in his rise from saxophone player to top status as a movie and TV producer-director.

But even in his lean days Powell had a sturdy independence.

HE RECALLED that 30 years ago, as a young unknown theater emcee, he turned down a chance to play opposite a promising actress. The actress was Janet Gaynor. The picture was "Seventh Heaven," and it made a star of Charles Farrell, who took the role Powell rejected.

"But I still think I was right," said Dick. "I wasn't quite ready for it."

Powell later fought and won the right to play tough guy roles after he starred in 35 musicals in 13 years, the memory of which still depresses him.

The slender tenor from Mountain View, Ark., is busier than ever. He will help supervise the filming of 150 television shows and he still has four full-length pictures to produce and direct under a contract with 20th Century-Fox.

What has been his biggest problem in adapting to his new career as a producer? Powell grinned wryly at his wife, actress June Allyson.

"IT'S TRYING to sell an actor on the idea that a proposed role is just right for him. I don't know why that's so difficult for me. After all, I was sold the same way dozens and dozens of times when I was an actor," he replied.

"I'm not exactly the promoting type of producer. I hate to put pressure on people, but sometimes you have to."

"But there's no greater satisfaction than taking a story and turning it into a completed picture. It's far more satisfying than just acting."

"People think Richard's a lot tougher and more practical than he really is," said June, who knows shorthand and says she acts as his secretary when they're traveling. "Underneath, he's a softie."

They relax with their children on a 50-acre ranch that lies within the city limits of Los Angeles. Dick still likes to play his saxophone, but most of his singing now is confined to bathroom arias. (Associated Press)

Washington Scene

WASHINGTON—In the long night watches of the expiring hours of Congress it was customary for Republican Senators to catch a few moments of legislative respite in the office of Secretary of the Minority J. Mark Trice; and Democratic Senators in the sanctum of Sergeant-at-Arms Joseph C. Duke. In these hideaways they talked as usual, and frequently became assailed by the pangs of hunger and thirst.

When the latter occurred, there was usually one solon who offered to play host. For instance, one night Senator Henry C. Dworshak contributed a sack of potato chips from his state of Idaho; on another night Senator Norris Cotton passed around hunks of cheese from his native New Hampshire. On a third nocturnal get-together, Senator Everett McKinley Dirksen, of Illinois, ordered up from the Senate restaurant a few snacks of ham, chicken and cheese, regardless of state origin.

DURING ONE of the latest night sessions last GOP Senators sought succor in Secretary Trice's hideout—the aforementioned Cotton and Dworshak, plus Thurston B. Morton, of Kentucky, and John Marshall Butler, of Maryland. The pangs struck again. Senator Butler, a mad, impetuous type, suddenly was moved to this unwonted outcry:

"It's my turn to buy! It's my turn to buy!"

The others were so thunderstruck at this un-Butlerish madness they couldn't find voice to say nay. The Marylander grabbed the phone and told the Senate restaurant:

"Send us some ham, chicken, and cheese—like you did for Senator Dirksen the other night."

An unusual delay ensued. Then the door to Trice's retreat flew open and in marched a literally staggering array of waiters.

They were bent, and almost bowlegged, beneath great trays heaped with enough ham, chicken and cheese to feed most of the Legislative Branch of Government. They deposited the trays and handed the almost bug-eyed Senator Butler a bill for $39.50.

He let out a cry such as hasn't been heard in the Capitol since the British set fire to it. He asked the captain of waiters what mad jest was this. The minion replied that he had just obeyed the Senator's bidding.

"My bidding?" roared Senator Butler. "I told you to bring this mountain of fodder!"

"You ordered us to do the same for you as we did for Senator Dirksen the other night," defended the servitor.

A strangled cry was torn from Senator Butler as the horrid light dawned. Senator Dirksen, who hopes to be Republican leader next year, had made the arrangements for a late farewell party a few nights previously for Senator William F. Knowland, of California, the outgoing Minority leader. Dirksen invited all the Senate and more than half of the House of Representatives—and ordered refreshments accordingly.

WHEN SENATOR Butler recovered a semblance of composure, he stared wildly at the trays of food and invited his three colleagues to eat as much as they could. But just then the bells clanged for a roll call, and the solons, plus Trice, rushed to the floor for a vote on the aid to education bill.

The minute voting was completed, Senator Butler dashed about the chamber inviting everyone he could grab to come to Trice's office and help him eat the food.

Senator Butler galloped up and down the Capitol, trying to corral Senators to join him at the costly feedbag. But he failed to catch up with a single one. All had fled into the night.

He returned to Trice's rideaway and made an heroic one-man onslaught upon the food mountain, winding up with a gorged, but hopeless, look.

After this his distinguished colleagues added to his misery by calling him "Ham-bone Butler." (King Features Syndicate)

Weldemerns Entertained By Mrs. Cost

The August meeting of the Weldemerns Bible Class of Centre Street Methodist Church was held at the home of Mrs. Vernon Cost, LaVale, with Mrs. Eugene Hopkins presiding. Mrs. Ray Blase led the devotions on the Twenty Third Psalm.

The ways and means committee displayed samples of the "Christmas Gift Candles" for which the class will take orders.

Following the business session refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Harry B. ## Speedy French Fries

Make French fries the easy way with instant mashed potatoes. Bring 2 cups water to brisk boil. Remove from heat and stir in 2 envelopes (1 cup) instant mashed potato, mixing with a fork. Cool slightly, turn out on lightly floured board, roll 1/4 inch thick and cut into strips 1/4 inch wide and 2-3 inches long. Fry in deep fat at 390 degrees until golden brown. The Yom Kippur Dance will be held September 24 in the Synagogue vestry room. Mrs. Klein is chairman and will be assisted by Mrs. Edward Pallik, Mrs. George Waingold, Mrs. Alvin Finesman, Mrs. Sol Glicksman, Mrs. Robert Goldfine, Mrs. Walter Brock, Mrs. Sander Lewine, and Mrs. Mel Sacks.

Madison-Crippen Marriage Takes Place At St. Patrick's

The marriage of Miss Nancy Jane Crippen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Crippen, 467 Goethe Street, and Cpl. Richard L. Madison, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard T. Madison, of Worcester, Mass., took place Saturday in St. Patrick's Catholic Church. The double ring ceremony was solemnized at a nuptial mass with Rev. John U. Lyness officiating.

Mrs. Thomas W. Farrell, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. George Bradford, Washington, was best man.

The traditional wedding marches and the mass were played by Sister M. Josephine.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a ballerina-length gown of lace, styled with a jacket, long sleeves and harem hemline. Her short veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

A breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Farrell, 202 North Centre Street, following the ceremony.

The couple left on a trip with the bride wearing a two-piece dress combining shades of blue and green; dark blue accessories and a corsage of carnations. They will reside in Washington.

The bride is a graduate of Allegheny High School and is employed in the Bureau of Public Roads in Washington. Cpl. Madison is a graduate of Worcester High School and is stationed with the Marine Corps in Washington.

Nancy Vandervort Becomes Bride Of W. L. Reed

The marriage of Miss Nancy Irene Vandervort, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norval Vandervort, Danville, and William Lee Reed, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Reed, Bloomington, took place in the Dawson Methodist Church, Sunday. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas Beckett, of Eckhart. Miss Margaret Wills was accompanist for James Hager and Miss Marlene Clark, vocalists.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a white lace ballerina-length gown with matching jacket and long lace gloves. Her finger-tip veil was attached to a crown of sequins. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid. The wedding party included Miss Wilma Vandervort, maid of honor, Juanita and Janet Sue Iser, flower girls; Kenneth Kile, ring bearer; Edward Carter, best man and Paul Wilson and Bruce Kile, ushers.

A reception was held following the ceremony on the lawn of the bride's home. Miss Elizabeth VanPelt and Miss Thelma Rae Forman served the cake. Miss Mary Ann Beaver presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Pamela Duckworth was in charge of the guest book.

For their trip, the bride wore a navy blue dress trimmed in white, white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride, a 1958 graduate of Bruce High School, is a member of the Danville 4-H Club and was district cherry pie champion and county 4-H public speaking winner last year as well as Allegheny County Farm Queen. She was valedictorian of her high school class and is a member of the Dawson Church choir.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Bruce High School, is a member of the Dawson Church MYF and coached the Bloomington church basketball team. He is stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C., where he will receive advanced infantry training.

Truman Will Make W. Va. Demo Speech

BECKLEY, W. Va. (UPI)—Former President Harry S. Truman will appear in Charleston Sept. 20 for a Democratic fund-raising dinner.

Truman's scheduled appearance was announced by State Democratic Chairman Hulett Smith at a weekend meeting of the Young Democratic Clubs of West Virginia.

Smith said details of the dinner had not yet been completed but that other state and national Democratic leaders are scheduled to appear.

Huntington attorney William Beckett, 32, was elected new president of the state Young Democrats organization, succeeding Steven Narick of Moundsville.

Other new officers elected were: Vice presidents, Kenneth Oliver, Madison; Mrs. Betty Blosser, South Charleston; and Charles Honaker, Beckley; treasurer, James F. Haught, Parkersburg; secretary, Joseph Vitello, Follansbee; national committeeman, Claude Ellis, Logan, national committeewoman, Jo Ann Demus, Worthington, Marion County.

W.Va. Board Of Public Works Takes Surplus Fund For 'Pork Barrel' Jobs

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—The Board of Public Works dipped into West Virginia's 1958 budget surplus yesterday to release funds for 12 of the 23 "pork barrel" projects set up by the Legislature last February.

Money for the additional projects is expected to be released as soon as the spending agencies involved submit formal requests to the board.

The board acted at a special meeting called after Atty. Gen. W. W. Barron advised it the release of the funds was mandatory as soon as it was determined that budget surplus from the last fiscal year ended June 30 was sufficient to cover the items.

Board members had considered waiting until they could get a better picture of tax receipts for the current fiscal year before releasing the money.

The 23 items, costing a total of $719,000, were set up by the Legislature on a No. 1 through 23 priority basis, to be carried out only if the money remained after 1957-58 appropriations were paid and $1,804,618 was set aside from surplus for use in the 1958-59 budget.

State Finance Commissioner George Vieweg reported that total surplus amounted to $4,763,027, more than enough to cover the $1,804,618 item and all 23 special projects.

The $370,000 released today covered 12 projects for which money had been requested last week by the Conservation Commission, Agriculture Department and State Board of Education.

The Conservation Commission items included improvements costing $74,000 at Panther State Forest in McDowell County, $25,000 at North Bend State Park in Ritchie County, $50,000 at Kanawha State Forest near Charleston, $25,000 at Cedar Creek State Park in Gilmer County, $17,000 at Camp Creek State Forest in Mercer County and $40,000 at Watoga State Park in Pocahontas County.

Men Named To Head GM

DETROIT (AP)—A finance expert and an authority on production and engineering have been named to direct the destinies of the world's biggest industrial corporation.

General Motors directors Monday elected Frederic G. Donner, 56, board chairman and chief executive officer, and John F. Gordon, 58, as president and chief operating officer.

Their election, effective Sept. 1, followed the retirement of Board Chairman Albert Bradley and President Harlow H. Curtice, both of whom have passed GM's normal retirement age of 65. In effect, Curtice's job as president and chief executive officer is being divided between Donner and Gordon.

Donner has been with General Motors since 1926; Gordon joined the corporation in 1923. Donner's work has been almost entirely in finance, Gordon's in engineering and production.

State Fair's Heads Hope For 300,000

TIMONIUM, Md. (AP)—Officials hope attendance will top the 300,000 mark for this year's Maryland State Fair, opening here Saturday. It runs through Sept. 13.

The fair drew 293,000 for last year's 14-day stand. There is a new grandstand for daily racing on the half-mile track. The grandstand seats 4,000 and 3,000 more can sit in boxes, bleachers and benches.

Post time is 1:30 p.m. with eight races daily. There will be no racing on Sundays, as usual, and on Sept. 2.

All judging, except for horses and ponies, will be done during the first week of the fair. There will be some night judging that week, to give city folk and others who can't get out during the day a chance to see how it's done.

Exhibits will be open until 10 p.m. through Sept. 7, with $97,000 in premium money to be awarded exhibitors. The midway also closes Sept. 7 and the last grandstand show is scheduled that night.

One of the features of opening day will be selection of the Maryland Farm Queen from among finalists in the 23 counties. The winner gets a four-year scholarship to the University of Maryland.

Timonium's million-dollar grandstand will be dedicated opening day.

The number of chemical products marketed in the U.S. has increased an average of 270 annually during the past 25 years. There are now between 6,500 and 7,000 of them.

Warning To Women Think Before Shedding Husband

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Maybe your husband makes you so mad sometimes that you could cheerfully belt him one—but think twice before you rush out to get a divorce. Think what life would be like without him.

"Divorcees are the unhappiest women in the world," says Frances Sider, who won both fame and fortune as a sportswear designer in New York before she decided to get a divorce, shut up shop and moved to Miami to start a new business and a new life. "I know, because I am one. And I watch the others, down in that playtime merry-go-round of Florida."

"I was married for 25 years before I gave up. Suddenly I found myself a single woman, with a half-grown daughter. Times and customs had changed since my childhood days. I didn't understand the new pattern and the new 'wear' business there, designing ways, and I found I didn't want bathing suits and resort clothes on the spot, selling to stores around the country as well as in Florida. She is busy, successful, smart, and good-looking."

"When I first arrived in Miami, my friends kept introducing eligible men, but I didn't know how to talk to them. You lose practice at flirting after 25 years. I'm in my life," says she. "Besides, I was embarrassed and miserable that I worry about my daughter, and wanted nothing so much as to get back home, alone, with only my daughter to talk to."

Since her Miami sojourn, Mrs. Sider has started a new sports-wear business.

PE Company Plans To Sell City Property

The Potomac Edison Company tomorrow will advertise for sale its North Centre Street property.

Seven buildings, including the old car barn, a boiler room, a repair shop and an office building, are included in the sale.

The company hopes to move into its new warehouse and service center, now being built on Fourth Street in South Cumberland, by January.

Potomac Edison will receive bids at its office, 112 Union Street, until 10 a. m. September 15. The successful bidder will be notified by 6 p. m. September 17.

Involved in the sale is property at 325, 327, 401 and 407 North Centre Street. The property fronts 150.25 feet on the street, runs back 237 feet to the Western Maryland Railway right of way, and extends 219 feet along the railroad.

The property is divided by Smith Street, which separates 327 North Centre Street from 401.

Improvements on the property include a one-story concrete block repair shop at the rear of 323 North Centre; a two-story brick office building at No. 325; a one-story brick building at 401; another at 407; a one-story frame and metal building at the rear of 407; and a one-story concrete block building at the rear of Nos. 401, 403 and 405.

Bids must be accompanied by certified or cashier's checks for five per cent of the amount of the bid, and the amount will be forfeited if the successful bidder defaults.

If Potomac Edison is unable to vacate the property by January 1, it will pay $500 a month rent to the new owner after that date.

Man, Woman Sought To 'Live On Moon'

AMSTERDAM (UPI)—An American scientist is looking for two men and a woman who would be willing to live for eight days as though they were camping out on the moon.

Prof. Tibor Helvey of Kansas University said the volunteers would have to agree to spend most of their time in a circular hut 16 feet in diameter, using special lightweight tools and utensils to create a semblance of the moon's feeble gravity.

Anytime they wanted to leave the hut to stroll in the simulated "mooncape" outside, they would have to don space suits.

Helvey, who is working on an advanced project for the Radiation Corporation, of Orlando, Fla., said in an interview that not enough attention is being paid to

Ask Damages For Injuries To Youngster

A total of $35,000 damages is being asked in two damage suits filed in Allegany County Circuit Court as the result of injuries suffered by a six-year-old Cumberland boy.

A $25,000 suit was filed in behalf of the boy, Ronald Eugene Leecy, by his father and next friend, Elmer A. Leecy, 21 Cresap Street, against William D. Brightner, Montreal Avenue.

The declaration was filed by Attorney William L. Wilson.

Leecy also filed a $10,000 suit against the driver for loss of his son's services and for hospital and medical bills incurred as a result of the accident.

The Leecy family had been attending church the night of the accident and had just left the service when the boy was knocked down.

Montague Papers Donated To WVU

"Closed Doors," a collection of studies of deaf and blind children published in 1915, is among the papers and manuscripts of the late Margaret Preston-Montague presented to West Virginia University.

Miss Montague wrote the book from her observations of the children at West Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind at Romney in the early part of the century.

One of West Virginia's most able and prolific writers, she won much acclaim for her short stories and essays from World War I through the late 1930s.

United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The GOP must run this fall against Lyndon B. Johnson, even though its campaigners may sound like they are running against Harry Truman, Walter Reuther or Orval Faubus.

As Democratic leader of the Senate, Johnson has done more than any other individual to write the record of his party during the first 19 months of the second Eisenhower administration.

To his critics, he is a slick operator, a Southern New Dealer too free with the taxpayers' money, or an unprincipled compromiser too willing to go along with fellow Democrats from the South.

To his admirers, he is a peerless strategist, a worker of legislative miracles, or even the greatest congressional leader in the history of the Republic.

His success in developing a program on which most Senate Democrats could unite has convinced some of them that he is the best thing that has happened to the Democratic Party since Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Seizes Initiative

It was Johnson who rode into town after sputnik last fall to flick a whip at the administration in the race for control of space.

It was Johnson who seized the initiative last winter to turn congressional attention to the business recession and to mould a program of the type he thought was needed to deal with it.

And it was Johnson who led the Senate to an almost unanimous vote for a labor reform bill which the labor movement could swallow, but which died in the partisan shots at the Republican House. Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Irving M. Ives (R-N.Y.) wrote the bill but Johnson got it passed.

His footwork on the labor bill was similar to that he displayed last year in getting the Senate to pass a civil rights bill for the first time since the reconstruction era.

The Johnson legislative program also has been tailored to provide help for Democrats running for Congress this fall. In mid-term elections when the White House is not at stake, state and regional issues have more impact than national issues on the results.

While developing a program that he thought was good for

With Atom Subs Making Headlines, Industry Steps Up Nuclear Interest

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—With American nuclear submarines making headlines on both sides of the Atlantic today, industry is stepping up its interest in the atom on the front.

Some commercial nuclear power plants already are in operation and others are being built.

And nuclear research reactors are operating at various points from one side of the nation to the other. Still more are being installed.

An operating nuclear research reactor built by Atomics International, a division of North American Aviation, is being set up in Geneva for the second International Conference on Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy, opening next week.

Six 10-watt nuclear research reactors are being built by that company at Canoga Park, Calif., for use by educational institutions and industrial research laboratories. Curtiss-Wright has a general purpose nuclear installation at its research development center at Quakana, Pa., offering laboratory and radiation services for industry.

It is building a reactor at Watertown, Mass., for the U. S. Army to test an atomic food irradiator. The aim is to process foods so that they may be kept fresh under field conditions for the military forces.

North American built a research reactor for Armour Research Foundation of Chicago. And American Machine and Foundry supplied one for Battelle Memorial Institute of Columbus, Ohio.

General Electric is negotiating with Washington State College at Pullman, Wash., for a research reactor.

In the field of atomic power plants, Westinghouse Electric will complete one in 1960 at Rowe, Mass., for the Yankee Atomic Electric Co., using experience gained in the plant in operation at Shippingport, Pa. It has under way a study with the Carolinas Virginia Nuclear Power Associates to find the type of reactor best suited to the group's needs.

North American Aviation will complete in 1961 nuclear power plants at Piqua, Ohio, and Ham, Neb. And it has a research and development program under way on an advanced epithermal thorium reactor for the Southwest Atomic Energy Associates, representing 15 electric utility companies in Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas.

General Electric expects to have a 180,000-kilowatt nuclear power plant ready in two years for Commonwealth Edison near Chicago. It will build a nuclear steam supply system at Eureka, Calif., for Pacific Gas & Electric. The utility will also use power generated at GE's Vallecitos nuclear laboratory in California, which will be completed this fall.

Expense has been the chief deterrent to rapid growth of the civilian use of the atom. Conventional power utilities see the day far off when nuclear power will be competitive. But starts are multiplying.

Local Airman At 'Moon' Shot

Staff Sgt. David W. Shircliffe, son of Mrs. Mary Clark, RD 1, was a member of a team of news media personnel representing the Tactical Air Command at the recent firing of the Air Force lunar probe missile at Cape Canaveral, Fla.

Sgt. Shircliffe assisted in the writing of news releases concerning key personnel intimately connected with the lunar probe project here at the Air Force's Missile Test Center.

A recent graduate of the U. S. Army Information School, he has been on active duty with the Air Force since 1948. During his 10-year military career, Sgt. Shircliffe served in England from 1950 to 1952 and on Okinawa from 1953 to 1956.

Sgt. Shircliffe is stationed at Turner Air Force Base, Albany, Ga., with the 31st Tactical Fighter Wing. He was graduated from LaSalle High School in 1948.

He is married to the former Miss Lou Ann Burkett, a graduate of Allegany High School, class of 1951, also of Route 1, city. They have three children, David Jr., Michael, and James, and reside in Albany, Ga.

Local Plant Praised For Safety Mark

The Amcelle plant of Celanese Corporation of America has been praised for its outstanding safety records.

Glenn G. Fleming, safety director for the corporation, has sent congratulatory letters to these departments which have worked extended periods without a lost-time injury.

Fleming's report reveals that the Central Formula Department at Amcelle has the longest no-accident record in the entire corporation, its employees having worked over 16 years without a lost-time injury. Special commendation was given these employees and their supervisor, John L. Baggett.

Other outstanding records without disabling injuries are: Cafeteria, over 11 years; Jet Cleaning and Assembly, over 10 years; Instrument Shop, over nine years; Cellulose Compounds, Anhydride Manufacturing, over seven years, and Acid Recovery, over seven years.

Precipitation, over seven years; Acid Settling, over seven years; Cellulose Storage, over three years; Acid Storage, over three years; Drying-Blending, over three years; Utilities, over five years, and Solvent Recovery, over three years.

Posting Campaign Cards On Poles Said 'Eyesore'

NEWARK, N. J. (UPI)—The Essex County Democratic organization Sunday took a candid view of the practice of posting pictures and campaign literature on utility poles.

It called such material "an eyesore to the community."

Accumulated Head Bumping Causes Man's Death

ROMFORD, England (UPI)—A coroner's jury ruled Monday a man died from accumulated injuries caused by bumping his head on the low roof of his garden shed over a 23-year period.

A verdict of accidental death was returned in the case of Bertie Cunneen, 55, a grocery clerk who died in a hospital from brain hemorrhage.

Relatives testified Cunneen, who was tall, often bumped his head on a low beam when he went into the shed in his garden. Dr. Cyril Raeburn, a pathologist, said the man's condition following repeated blows on the head was "compatible with the condition found in boxers who were punch drunk."

Coroner Louis Becce said Cunneen apparently caused small injuries to his brain over a 23-year period.

"But they all added up and produced this condition. There is no other explanation than this law which he would not take notice of at the time," the coroner said.

count for it."

State AFL-CIO Head To Attend Meet Here

W. F. Strong, Baltimore, president of the state AFL-CIO, will attend the meeting of the executive board of the Western Maryland Central Labor Council today at 7:30 p. m. at the Labor Temple on South Liberty Street.

F. Patrick Allender, president of the council, said the session will make plans for the next general meeting of the council.

The industrial loss due to sunburn in the U.S. is estimated at 7,500,000 work days a year.

RCSwimming Course Taken By Children

A swimming course sponsored by the Allegany County Chapter, American Red Cross, has been completed at the Cumberland Country Club pool by 35 youngsters.

Judith A. Wilson, a certified Red Cross water safety instructor, was in charge of the class.

A total of 12 also took the intermediate course. Completing both courses were Edward Mattingly, Phyllis Klein, Margaret Scott, William Scott, Sandy Saville, Kathy Mattingly, Dennis McCagh, Kay McCagh, Sue Ann Saville, Michael Richardson, Ann Garlitz, and Leigh Brinsfield.

Those who completed the beginner course, open to children eight years of age or over, were Michael Mattingly, Kay Prevatte, Todd Schwab, Lynn Friedland, Janet Marx, Jody Hopwood, Ann Russell, Timmy McCagh, Gigi Castelle, Pete Richardson, Eric Brinsfield, Patty LaNeve, Richard Prevatte, James Stafford, Joan Stafford and Bonnie LaNeve, city; Ardith Brock, Betsy Brock, Lisa Russell, Bobby Garner, Sam Schwab, and Harriet Granet, of LaVale, and Larry Boggs, Bedford Road.

The crew of the nuclear powered Nautilus, which earlier this month made epic voyage under Arctic ice pack, took in the sights of New York last night following arrival from England on record east-west underwater crossing.

Underwood Asks Interim Study Group To Keep Public Safety Activity Secret

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—The Legislature's main interim committee opening a study of State Police procedures today had before it a request by Gov. Cecil H. Underwood to keep secret the activities of the State Department of Public Safety.

Underwood made the request in a five-page letter to the committee Monday night, on the eve of the committee's scheduled start of an investigation of State Police activities.

"By the very nature of its primary mission, it is neither practical, advisable, nor wise for many of the activities of the Department of Public Safety to be publicized," Underwood said. "This is particularly true with regard to the police functions of the department in the apprehension of criminals and the enforcement of the law."

Senate President Ralph J. Bean (D-Hardy) said Monday night he had "no faith" in Underwood's contention that publication of the internal affairs of the department would work toward the advantage of felons, criminals and lawbreakers.

"I feel the meeting should be open to the public," Bean said. "The operation of the department affects every citizen in West Virginia and the people have a right to know about its functions."

Underwood added that interdepartmental business such as changes in personnel, transfers and schedules of working hours "cannot be dictated by editorials, petitions or the personal grievances of immediate families."

Underwood obviously referred to protests following the recent transfers, demotion and subsequent retirement of former State Police Trooper E. D. Bazzie of Princeton.

enough money to add 100 more men but the proposal "did not receive favorable action."

"This too, demonstrates that the reduction in highway traffic deaths in West Virginia has been accomplished without adequate personnel or added monetary incentive to the present members of the department," Underwood said.

The chief executive also said an increase in traffic to state parks and recreational areas this year "poses a perplexing problem" to the State Police.

He said the department must "keep pace with the changing times" and that "vigorous, energetic and dedicated young men" must be brought into the department.

Bazzie and State Police Supt. Hazen H. Fair were scheduled to appear before the interim committee today.

Underwood praised Fair's leadership and said the superintendent's "methodical manner, and personal modesty have no doubt kept him from pointing out the outstanding accomplishments made by the State Police under his direction during the past year and a half."

Underwood noted that West Virginia's highway death toll this year is nearly 100 below the 300 fatalities reported at this time last year. The chief executive also recalled that the State Police asked the last Legislature for

Pollution Drive Eases

BALTIMORE (AP) — The State Department of Health says the pressure to end pollution in the Little Choptank River isn't as great as previously announced.

Robert M. Brown, chief of the department's Bureau of Environmental Hygiene, said the oyster season in the Dorchester County river opens Oct. 1 instead of the Sept. 1 date given earlier.

But even with the extra month's time, Brown warned "this still leaves only five weeks for pollution to be stopped." He has said the river will be closed to oystering unless sewerage pollution from more than 30 homes along the shore is corrected.

A campaign to improve conditions has been launched by watermen in the area.

Flower Hint

A sharp knife is better than scissors for cutting stems on flowers since scissors pinch the stem, making it harder for water to enter.

Heavy Rains Hurt Crops, Flood Roads

By The Associated Press

Heavy rain, totaling more than five inches in some areas, flooded roads and damaged crops east of Maryland's mountains Monday.

Abundant summer rains have been credited with giving state farmers a chance to harvest record or near-record crops this year, but some of the previous benefits were washed away with the down-pour.

The Dorchester County agent's office said tomato fields were heavily damaged, while some corn and soy bean plants were knocked down. Some Cambridge streets were flooded.

An unofficial measurement of more than five inches was recorded in Queen Annes County between the midnight and noon Monday, with three inches falling between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m.

Hurricane-force winds flattened chicken houses and trees at Felton, Del., near Dover. Observers said the big blow lasted 14 minutes. No injuries were reported.

More than three inches of rain were recorded in Anne Arundel and Talbot counties and almost that much in St. Marys County.

Latin America supplies the United States with 54 per cent of its agricultural imports.

New Pole Missions Set

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States is priming for a new series of experimental missions at the South Pole.

The Navy announced Monday 2,700 men have been mobilized for this winter's Antarctic operations which will cap International Geophysical Year activities and kick-off a U.S. Antarctic research program of indefinite duration.

Nine ships and 34 aircraft will start leaving American seaports and airbases for New Zealand and the Antarctic in a few days, the Navy said.

Farm Youths At Institute

Allegany County is being represented by two teen-age boys this week at the 30th annual meeting of the American Institute of Cooperation at Pennsylvania State University.

One of five Maryland 4-H boys attending the conference which started Sunday and ends tomorrow is Louis Mittenberger of Ridgeley, who although a West Virginian, has been active in the 4-H program of Allegany County for years. Among the Future Farmers of America at the Penn State conference is Harold McCusker, who will be a senior at Flintstone High School when classes resume next month.

Kenneth M. Malone, vocational agriculture teacher at Flintstone High School, is in charge of the Maryland FFA boys at the conference. Kenneth E. Shifflet, assistant county agent in Frederick County, is directing the activities of the five 4-H boys.

"Teahouse" Superb At Playhouse

It is in such a production as John Patrick's "Teahouse of the August Moon" that the Jennings-town Mountain Playhouse Co. of James B. Stoughton and Louise S. Maust demonstrates its full capabilities. Ending its second week this season at the Mountain Playhouse Saturday, "Teahouse" somehow exemplified on the stage the best attributes of the cultural center that has been developed in nearby Somerset County by the Stoughton family.

There is an elusive quality about this pleasant but penetrating drama that "orients the oriental," and it requires more than adequate acting, competent direction and staging, and production know-how to make it "strike fire." That the Mountain Playhouse presentation of John Patrick's dramatization of Vern Sneider's novel about life on Okinawa captures the elusive qualities that are so important is a tribute to everyone concerned.

To Charles Crain who directed, to Carl Moore who did the setting and lighting, and to the cast, principals and ensemble, should go some of that 20 Star Tobiki that almost became the major accomplishment of the American Occupation Forces!

The versatility of Don Draper is amazing. His Sakini (while not as nimble) is certainly as well thought out and even better in depth and penetration than at least one of the Broadway purveyors of the role. There is an ingratiating facet to Draper's impersonations that shows up at its best in such a part as Sakini. Russell Gold invests the role

County School System Gets New Music Teacher

CHRISTINA MACDONALD

Two experienced music teachers have been appointed to positions in the Allegany County public school system for the term opening September 4, according to Richard T. Rizer, assistant superintendent of schools.

Miss Christina MacDonald, 332 Kingwood Street, Morgantown, W. Va., was named string instrument instructor for all county schools. She fills a position vacated with the resignation at the end of the school year of Miss Pauline Cira, also of Morgantown. Miss Cira has accepted a position in Pennsylvania near her home.

Miss MacDonald received her bachelor's degree in music with a major in violin in 1942 from West Virginia University. She has 14 years' teaching experience. She was at Sabraton (W. Va.) High School from 1944 until 1947 and taught at Morgantown junior and senior high schools from 1947 until 1958. Miss Cira was one of her students.

Bennett Arthur, 2105 Iverson Street, Washington, D. C., has been appointed music instructor at Mt. Savage High School, succeeding M. Bing Elliott, who resigned in June to enter the Army. Mr. Arthur was graduated from Bob Jones University, Greenville, S. C., in 1954. He has three years' teaching experience. He taught one year each at Reman High School, Gretna, Va.; Great Mills High School in St. Mary's County, and Suitland High School in Prince George's County. He plans to reside in Frostburg.

Local Church Given Permit For Building

First Methodist Church, 132 Bedford Street, yesterday obtained a building permit for the construction of an educational building on Frederick Street.

The $100,000 structure will be located on a 327-foot lot at the intersection of Frederick Street and Bopp Avenue.

The educational building will be a U-shaped structure, 90 feet long and 61 feet wide.

It will have a concrete block foundation and brick and concrete block walls.

R. G. Robeson Inc., McMullen Highway, will build the structure according to plans prepared by J. A. Hammer and Associates.

Ground for the building, the first phase of a $350,000-plus building program, was broken on May 25.

Construction of a parsonage and sanctuary are included in the building program.

Plumbers Will Convene Here

The convention of the Associated Plumbing Contractors of Maryland will be held in Cumberland this year.

Notice of the meeting here was given to the Mayor and City Council yesterday.

John W. Kraus Jr., Baltimore, convention chairman, said the annual event will be staged at the Fort Cumberland Hotel September 26-28.

The association asked permission to string a banner announcing the event across Baltimore Street at Liberty Street.

Permission was granted under supervision of the proper authorities.

Registration Deadline In County September 22

The deadline to register in order to vote in the November 4 general election is Monday, September 22.

Officials of the Allegany County Board of Election Supervisors said very few persons have registered in recent weeks.

During August only 24 have registered to date, 13 as Democrats and 11 as Republicans.

Irvin J. Neat, Republican registrar and chief clerk of the Board of Election Supervisors, announced a registration itinerary during which deputy registrars will visit some 24 places around the county.

Miss Bessie R. Baird and John J. Zapf, substitute registrars, will begin the tour of the county Thursday, August 28. This week they will sit at McCoolle, Luke, Barton and Midland.

They will be at the McCoolle Fire Hall from 2 until 5 p. m. Thursday, at the Devon Club library in Luke from 6 until 9 p. m. Thursday, at the Barton City Hall from 2 until 5 p. m. Friday and at the Midland Fire Hall from 6 until 9 p. m. Friday.

Those who will have lived in Maryland one year on or before

November 4 and will have reached their 21st birthday by that date may register now and vote November 4. Registrars are on duty at the Board of Election Supervisors' office in the Court House basement from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m. Monday through Friday and from 9 a. m. until noon on Saturdays.

The City of Cumberland issued building permits totaling $100,000 thus far this month, bringing the year's total to $2,396,832.01.

By August 25 last year, permits were only $918,366, and the year ended with a total valuation of $1,023,752.

The August permits included three residences, one garage, one service station, three additions to businesses, three additions to businesses, and two, additions to schools.

Included were five permits for new construction and eight additions and improvements.

Sanitation Unit Has Tough Problem

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Department of Sanitation had an odd problem on its hands today.

The problem: What to do with a 300-pound shark someone left on an East Bronx Street Monday.

America's first patent was granted in 1646 to Joseph Jenks of the Massachusetts Bay Colony for his invention of an improved scythe.

Some 12 million Americans are believed to be sleeping in air-conditioned bedrooms this summer.

Police Chase Ends In Crash Against Pole

Group Attempts To Free Girl Held At Infirmary Quarters

A group of West Side youths ended up in City Police Station this morning after trying to out-run a police car in the neighborhood of the Allegheny County Infirmary.

The "wild chase" ended in the 500 block of Valley Street when a car to be believed operated by utility pole.

A passenger in the car, Harold Wickard, 19, was admitted to Memorial Hospital with severe lacerations of his face and forehead as a result of the accident.

Try To Free Girl

City Police said the case developed at 3:45 a. m. when they received a call from the Allegheny County Infirmary that a group of youths was "trying to free a 17-year-old girl". The girl was sentenced to the House of Good Shepherd, Baltimore, yesterday morning in Juvenile Court. She was confined to the infirmary, until being transferred to Baltimore this morning.

Officer R. L. Maier answered the complaint and spotted the car traveling toward the infirmary on Furnace Street. The officer turned on his red blinker light and siren, but the youth "took off".

When the vehicles reached the infirmary the auto circled the building and headed back toward town and finally came to a halt against the utility pole on Valley Street.

Officer Maier said the driver, believed to be Parsons, ran from the car and remains at large. A warrant for his arrest was issued this morning in Trial Magistrate Court.

Condition Fair

Wickard was taken to Memorial Hospital where attaches report his condition as "fair". He was thrown against the car's windshield by the impact and sustained deep lacerations of his face and forehead.

Also riding in the car were a 16-year-old boy, and a 12 and 16-year old girl. All the youths gave their address as 890 Sperry Terrace.

The youths were questioned this morning by Lt. Det. James E. Van and taken to Juvenile Court where warrants were issued charging the minors with being delinquent minors and the Wickard and Parsons youths were charged with contributing to the delinquency of minors.

Police also discovered that the car had been stolen from John F. Merten, RD 3, Bedford Road. A second warrant was issued against Parsons charging him with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

They will be given hearings later this week in Juvenile Court, police said.

Police Probe Two Wrecks

Pennsylvania State Police at Bedford this morning handled two highway accidents in the area.

The first mishap was reported at 2:30 a. m. when a tractor-trailer rolled over on State Route 30 near Schellsburg.

Police said the driver, Elmer Cecil, 30, of 2843 Harrison Avenue, Akron, was not seriously injured in the mishap.

However, the accident tied up traffic on the highway and four troopers from the Bedford substation have been assigned to the scene. Police did not know what the trucker was hauling, but said five wooden boxes, weighing three to four tons, were thrown on the highway.

Police said the mishap occurred when the tractor-trailer went off the right side of the highway, smashed into a bank and rolled over.

In the other accident, Glenn Evans, 34, Hyndman, was admitted to Memorial Hospital in Cumberland after sustaining leg injuries.

Hospital attaches said Evans was riding in the rear of a Pennsylvania State Roads truck when another vehicle rammed into the rear of the truck.

Details of the accident were not available from State Police.

Local Barber Shops To Be Closed Monday

Union barber shops will be closed Monday next week in observance of Labor Day as well as Wednesday.

Frank Greco, president of Local 314, said it is also suggested that shops close Tuesday to make a long holiday. However, the Tuesday closing is not mandatory.

The union will hold its next meeting at the Labor Temple Tuesday, September 9, at 7:45 p. m. The meeting scheduled September 2 has been called off.

Outdoor Telephone Booth Burglarized

The phone and coin box from an outdoor telephone booth on Oldtown Road at the city limits was stolen last Friday night. The phone was found in nearby Fisher's Woods, but the coin box is still missing. City and state police are investigating.

PRE-SCHOOL CONFERENCE—Parent-child study group leaders met with Board of Education officials today, the first of a two-day workshop. The session will be held again tomorrow at the Board of Education building from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. Leaders reviewed resource material including film strips available for use by the study groups. Looking at some of the material above are, left to right, Mrs. Katherine Kyle, parent leader of Flintstone; Eugene Hopkins, visiting teacher; Fred Sheeley, visiting teacher; Mrs. Jean Howard, parent leader of RD 2, Flintstone; and Homer S. Higgins, supervisor of pupil personnel, who arranged the workshop. Meanwhile, cafeteria workers are holding a two-day workshop preparatory to the opening of public schools Thursday, September 4. Mrs. Gladys Eaton, supervisor, is in charge.

Divico Posts High Score At Guard Camp

Sgt. First Class John J. Divico posted the highest score with the rifle among members of Cumberland's National Guard Unit undergoing training at Indiantown Gap, Pa.

Sgt. Divico posted a 186 score out of a possible 200 points. Headquarters Company of the local unit had 15 men fire expert scores, 12 sharpshooters and 13 marksmen. Some of the firing was conducted at Barton's range before the unit left for camp, while other men fired at Indiantown Gap.

The scores for the expert shooters were: Sgt. Divico, 186; Sgt. First Class Matthew Skidmore, 185; Master Sgt. Walter W. Hartman Jr., 184; Sgt. First Class James E. Mullenex, 184; SP 2 Richard F. Dawson, 131; and Pfc Raymond E. Drake, 126.

Meeting On Vote Sought By Attorney

Earl E. Manges, attorney to the Allegheny County Board of Election Supervisors, today notified the county commissioners he would like to arrange a meeting with the county board's attorney, Gorman E. Getty, to discuss legal matters involving the election agency.

A letter was also received by the county commissioners from William C. Walsh of the Allegheny Chapter, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, requesting the county to send its annual $600 donation to the foundation to the County United Fund.

Walsh explained that the foundation is a member of the CUF and is allotted the $600 which the county provides. The procedure would eliminate some book-keeping if followed. The commissioners agreed to the proposal.

A report was received from the State Department of Health on the revised population figures for Allegheny County as of June, 1958.

The report stated the figures were arrived at by using a "composite" method whereby adjusted ratios by population to births, deaths and school enrollment.

There was no change in the population in the report from the 1957 figure of 83,000. Garrett County's population also remained at 19,000. Washington County listed a gain of 500 to 87,500 from the previous year.

City Worker Keeps Seniority

The Civil Service Commission of the City of Cumberland meeting last night at its office in city hall, ruled on the seniority of a woman employee whose job had been abolished while she was on a leave of absence.

The commission ruled that Mrs. Ruth V. Morgan, a junior stenographer, would retain her seniority and if a vacancy exists in that classification, she will get first preference. Her name remains on the seniority list, the commission said.

Mrs. Morgan had been employed in the office of the Mayor when she took her leave of absence prior to the new administration taking office in July.

In another action last night, the commission approved a leave of absence for Mrs. Margaret Sisk, records clerk in the Police Department, for a year.

Efficiency rating forms were discussed. The forms are to be prepared and forwarded to various departments for completion. The reports are required by law and rate the efficiency of employees.

Attending the meeting were Francis A. Kenney, chairman, Ralph R. Webster and Fred E. Ryan, members.

Labor Group Picnic Plans Progressing

Plans are progressing for the Labor Day picnic to be held at Fairgo Monday by the Western Maryland Labor Council, it was announced today by the general chairman.

The event, for union members, their friends and families, will be held from 9:30 a. m. to 6 p. m. Attending the basket picnic will be delegations from Hagerstown, Baltimore, Washington and the Eastern Shore.

General chairman for the event are Stanley Zorick, Graydon S. Dunlap, and Joseph V. Burke. They also compose the program committee.

Committee members are: Earl Sills, Harold Riggelman, Garnett M. Yost, Joseph Freno, and Charles E. Stutzman, refreshments.

Patrick F. Allender, Zorick and Burke, publicity and finance. Andrew Lewis and Roy Craze, recreation. The City Recreation Department will arrange the program.

M. R. Samson and Stutzman, police protection.

John Mace and Joseph Mullenex, games.

Charles Bramble and George Brown, safety and health.

Two Arrested For Drag Racing

Two local motorists were nabbed early Saturday morning for "drag racing" on Bedford Street. Troopers Willis Foreman and Joseph Smith of the Maryland State Police arrested the young drivers after observing them travel 70 miles an hour in the 25-mile zone.

Police said the pair pulled their cars along side of each other and speeded up. The one driver attempted to escape by turning off Bedford Street and heading out Frederick. He was later apprehended.

One driver forfeited $25 yesterday in Trial Magistrate Court. The second driver will be given a hearing later this week.

Payroll Authorized

The City Council yesterday authorized the city auditor to prepare the payroll for the second portion of August for distribution on September 2. The checks will be given out on Friday if the work is completed by that time.

Surplus Food Program Hits Another Snag

A snag developed in the progress of obtaining approval of the application of the Allegheny County Board of Commissioners for a surplus food program.

William Brugger, supervisor of the donable food program for the State Department of Budget and Procurement, wrote the board that several additional changes must be made in the application, and various forms required by the federal government before the plan can be approved.

The commissioners were visibly displeased at this turn of events today as the surplus food program has run into one obstacle after another in recent months. It had been hoped to have the program in effect by the end of this month.

Brugger telephoned the board later in today's meeting to say that the income allowance table for applicants for surplus food has been decreased slightly. As it appears now the program will probably not get underway until late next month or early in October, provided there are no more delays.

The Associated Charities has notified the board it estimates more than 400 families comprising about 1,000 people are eligible for the surplus federal food.

Council Approves Convention Banner

The Mayor and Council yesterday granted permission to the Associated Plumbing Contractors of Maryland for the placing of a banner across Baltimore Street during the convention of the organization here next month.

The convention will be held September 26-28, with the Fort Cumberland Hotel as headquarters for the sessions.

POSTS HIGH SCORE—Sgt. First Class John J. Divico (left) is shown receiving a medal for posting the highest score with a M1 rifle among members of the local National Guard Unit. First Lt. Thomas F. Conlon Jr., company commander of the local group, is presenting the medal to Divico. The local Guard is currently undergoing two weeks training at Indiantown Gap, Pa. Divico shot a 186 out of 200.

D'Alesandro Scores Hit In Shore Talk

Senate Candidate Says Foe Fine Man But Is Republican

EASTON, Md. (AP) — Thomas D'Alesandro, mayor of Baltimore running for the U. S. Senate, made a big hit on the Eastern Shore of Maryland Monday night with a talk about sticking with the Democrats.

His listeners were about 200 other Democratic candidates and party committeemen from the nine Shore counties.

"I am a practical politician and I don't deny it," D'Alesandro said. "I like people and I like to serve people."

Confidence Displayed

"Many people have said 'we don't know Tommy.' Well, that's all right, because I'm here selling Tommy."

Referring to his Republican opponent, Sen. J. Glenn Beall, and the Shore's Republican congressman, Edward T. Miller, D'Alesandro said:

"My opponent and your congressman are fine men. But they are Republicans. That's the answer."

The meeting of the Democrats who have won only one statewide election contest in the last eight years, reeked with confidence of a change in the tide in November.

"We are pleased to have the kick off of this campaign on the Eastern Shore as we meet to show we're leveling our big guns," said State Sen. John Clarence North of Talbot County.

Victory Forecast

J. Edgar Harvey, the regional campaign chairman from Salisbury, spoke thus:

"When the votes are counted on the night of Nov. 4 it will be a memorable occasion, a memorable occasion for democracy because we will have elected an Eastern Shoreman for governor; a southern Marylander for comptroller; a Howard countian for attorney general; and a Baltimorean to the Senate and we will have turned over every office to a deserving Democrat."

In addition to D'Alesandro, Harvey's references were to J. Millard Tawes, candidate for governor from Somerset County, Louis L. Goldstein, candidate for comptroller from Calvert County, and C. Ferdinand Sybert, attorney general from Howard.

Sybert is the only Democrat to have won a statewide contest in the past two general elections. Tawes was elected comptroller without Republican opposition.

Cemetery Road Will Be Graded

At the suggestion of Commissioner Charles N. Wilkinson, the Allegheny County Board of Commissioners today authorized the Roads Department to grade the roadway leading into the Dawson Cemetery on McMullen Highway.

The commissioners also discussed the problem of brush growing up in the stream bed of Georges Creek at Shaft. William G. Meagher appeared before the board to ask for some relief from the situation. He said when high water occurs the residence he owns is damaged by the overflow.

A decision in the matter will be made at Friday's session of the board. Harry T. Skelly, county roads supervisor, will attend the meeting so that the problem can be fully discussed.

Woman 'Picks' Black Widow Spider In Yard

A Locust Grove woman escaped being bitten by a black widow spider Friday while picking tomatoes in her garden.

Mrs. Maurice Whiteman said she was picking tomatoes when she noticed the poisonous insect in the bucket she was using. She was able to get the insect into a jar and will take it to the county farm agent's office tomorrow for examination.

She said the spider had the red hourglass making on its back which identifies the "Black Widows."

Woman Dies As Result Of Car Accident

A young Barton mother died this morning in Miners Hospital at Frostburg as a result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident Sunday along the Georges Creek.

The victim was Mrs. Betty Jose, 29, of Mill Run Road, Barton. Attaches said the woman sustained a fractured left arm, fractured ribs, brush burns of the arms and body and was admitted in a "state of shock."

Mrs. Jose and four other persons were injured Sunday evening when the station wagon they were riding in collided along State Route 36 at the east end of the Lonaconing town limits.

State Police who investigated said the station wagon rammed into an abutment of a bridge which spans George Creek.

Police said the wagon was traveling south on the highway and ran off the right side of the road.

Injured in the same mishap were William K. Grady, 29, Piedmont, driver of the vehicle; Okey W. Halbritter, 35, Westernport, and Doris Alice Michael, 17, of Midland.

Mrs. Jose's body was taken to the Boal Funeral Home in Westernport.

Road Official Aids In Study

Harry T. Skelly, county roads supervisor, is a member of a committee of the County Engineers' Association of Maryland which is making a study of the distribution of gasoline tax revenues to the counties and Baltimore City.

Skelly submitted a report to the Allegheny County Board of Commissioners today outlining the gasoline tax situation and stating that the Engineers Association will submit a report to the Legislative Council on its findings.

The association is working with the State Association of County Commissioners in the matter. Both groups say the distribution is unfair to the counties because Baltimore City gets 30 per cent of the total, 50 per cent goes to the state and the counties get only 20 per cent.

Skelly said the four large suburban counties of Baltimore, Anne Arundel, Montgomery and Prince Georges get a total of $3,500,000 while Baltimore City gets more than $17,000,000 under the percentage formula in use.

He pointed out that the counties get $800 for each mile of road, way from gasoline tax revenue while Baltimore City receives $9,900 for each mile of its streets.

18 Honored For Services

Eighteen employees of the Amcelle plant of the Celanese Corporation of America were presented watches last week in recognition of 25 years service.

W. E. Crooks, plant manager, presented the watches, while section superintendents presented five-star service emblems to the employees.

Receiving the awards were James M. Baker, Harry L. Carns, Roy F. Everstine, John J. Nolan, John W. Thomas and James W. Tyree of the engineering department; Harry W. Alderton, Recuben B. Broadwater, Oscar C. Chaney, Amos Lambert and Sampson J. Sions of cellulose compounds.

William A. Brown, James C. Riley, Percy R. Sansom, Hazel H. Wiley and Wayne C. Wolford, of extrusion manufacturing; James W. Padfield of textile manufacturing and Harry M. Stafford of solvent recovery.

Orr Attends Typos Annual Convention

James Orr, president of the Allegheny County Board of Commissioners, and his wife have returned from a three week tour of the west.

Orr attended the 100th annual convention of the International Typographical Union in San Francisco. He has been a member of the union for 40 years.

Airport Group To Meet

The Cumberland Municipal Airport Commission will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the office of Mayor J. Edwin Keech.

Flood Project Fund Awaits Ike Signature

River, Creek Work In Final Stages, Engineer Reports

An appropriation for $1,751,000 approved yesterday by the House and Senate is the amount anticipated for the completion of contracts on the Cumberland-Ridgeley flood protection project.

The appropriation bill is awaiting the signature of President Eisenhower.

The majority of contract work is expected to be completed during the current year, according to Rex E. Dexter, resident engineer for the Corps of Engineers, who explained that should unforeseen developments hold up work all phases will be completed before the end of the fiscal year.

The termination dates on all existing contracts fall within the current year, he continued, and an extension is anticipated on only one of the phases of the Section 4 contract.

No Bed Rock

That is for the new Western Maryland Railway bridge where bed rock has not been encountered and where plans must be revised to meet the condition.

Section 2 of the Potomac River project, being handled by E. J. Albrecht firm, is about 95 per cent completed. The work is at a standstill, Dexter explained, pending completion of the new Western Maryland interchange bridge and the removal of the old bridge. Rick rack will be placed where the abutments of the old bridge now are, and some levee and seeding work also remains to be done.

The Wills Creek phase of the flood protection project being done by Albrecht crews is also progressing favorably, Dexter said, with paving and excavation work moving on schedule. Dexter said the last of three pumping stations is nearing completion, with tests for the equipment in the viaduct station scheduled in about three weeks.

Value Demonstrated

Dexter, who has been resident engineer since 1952, said the value of the project was demonstrated during the high water several weeks ago when the completed portions handled the large volume of water without any trouble.

Of particular importance when the project is turned over to civil authority for maintenance is that the Wills Creek bed will be practically self-cleaning, Dexter pointed out. The flow of water on the concrete base of Wills Creek takes care of very heavy stone and other matter, while the lack of abutments in the river bed will prevent trees and other debris from holding back water.

Dexter said the last work on the flood control project probably will be the removal of a portion of Smith Island from the Potomac River. However, he continued, tests are being conducted to determine if the flow of the river will take care of the earth by erosion.

County Gets Report On Annual Audit

The annual audit of Allegheny County was submitted to the county commissioners today by James P. Rogers, Baltimore, certified public accountant.

Rogers in his summary states that during the current year the county contributed the following sums for school purposes. Operating expenses, $1,890,009.10; interest charges, $154,025.21; debt retirement, $364,025.97. This makes a total outlay of $2,408,060.28 which is an increase of $320,360.76.

This does not include motor vehicle license fees of $63,883.10 paid to the Board of Education in the current year.

Cash on hand as of June 30 was $2,280,128.28 with the amounts verified by direct communication with the depositories. Taxes receivable amounted to $95,991.59.

Long term indebtedness of the county is $8,825,962.38 and debt service of the county for the year ended June 30 amounted to $709,272.34. Of this amount, $215,781.25 was applied to interest charges.

Total revenues of the county for the current year total $4,077,546.46 compared to $4,103,374.30 for the preceding year. The decrease in revenue was due principally to a decrease in state shared taxes, motor vehicle license fees paid the Board of Education, and a lack of an appropriation by the City of Cumberland toward maintenance of the County Health Department.

Total expenditures during the current year, exclusive of debt service, amounted to $3,693,700.42 compared to $3,384,734.12 for the preceding year. Total increase in expenditures was $309,000 with the schools accounting for $153,500 and salary increases of $74,500.

Mapleside Festival Set Thursday Night

Mapleside Playground Association will hold a festival Thursday at 6:30 p. m. at the playground.

Refreshments will be sold and games and bingo played.

State Farm Work Slowed By Weather

Tomatoes Improved In Quality Moving In Heavy Volume

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — Rain slowed farm work in Maryland and Delaware the latter part of last week but the harvesting of most crops continued at a good pace, observers said today.

The Maryland-Delaware Crop Reporting Service said showers and heavy rains hit slowed activities in several areas.

Hay harvesting made rapid progress, however, and third cuttings of alfalfa were reaching a peak. Corn was in excellent condition. Topping and harvesting continued in Southern Maryland.

On the lower Eastern Shore, potato digging was about finished, but only about half completed in Delaware. Tomatoes improved in quality and were moving in heavy volume. The cantaloup harvest also was about over on the lower Shore.

Land was prepared for the seeding of small grains and alfalfa. Harvest of Sullivan Elberta peaches had passed the peak at week's end. Regular Elbertas, J. H. Hale and Shippers Late Red varieties are expected to begin this week. The harvest of Jonathan and Grimes apples was expected to start next week.

Industrial Fund Sought

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—The State Industrial & Publicity Commission has renewed its efforts to gain support for creation of a state agency armed with dollars to make loans to industries desiring to locate or expand in West Virginia.

The commission Monday went on record favoring formation of a credit authority.

Gov. Cecil H. Underwood, ex-officio chairman of the commission, said such an agency would help speed industrial development in West Virginia.

During a commission meeting, Director Don Crislip said West Virginia appropriations for industrial development were lower than surrounding states and said this state must have more money to "keep up with its neighbors."

The State Chamber of Commerce, organized labor and other groups will be solicited for support of the credit plan, Crislip said.

Committees Plan Study Of Drink Tax

Extension Measure Repeal Possibility To Be Considered

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—West Virginia's soft drink tax extension enacted by the 1958 Legislature will be studied by the Legislature's interim committees to determine whether repeal should be suggested.

The Legislature's two main interim committees voted Monday to study the tax extension on a joint motion by Del. Hobart Booth (D-Fayette) and Sen. a Minority Leader John E. Carrigan (R-Martin).

The levy was extended to practically all powder or syrup-based drinks mixed at home, like instant cocoa, to help finance construction of a teaching hospital at the West Virginia University Medical Center.

A vote on the motion for the study was preceded by an unsuccessful motion by Booth for an investigation of the university Board of Governors' action in setting a $30,000-a-year salary for President-elect Elvis J. Stahr Jr., who takes over at Morgantown next Feb. 1.

Del. George H. Seibert Jr. (R-Ohio) opposed Booth's proposal, saying the committees could not "investigate everything in state government that irritates somebody."

Senate President Ralph B. Bean (D-Hardy) said he saw no need for an investigation but added he would like to see the proper officials appear before a legislative committee.

Bean said he was not critical of the salary offered Stahr and that such an investigation "might hurt the university." Bean added that he was interested in the agricultural and engineering schools there and would seek information about them "at the proper time."

Legislative Auditor C. H. Koontz was asked to report at the next meeting Sept. 29-30 on revenue produced by the soft drink tax extension and also the Medical Center's future construction plans.

Clark, Kennedy To Be Speakers

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Sens. Joseph Clark of Pennsylvania and John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts have been added to the list of speakers who will come to West Virginia to help the Democratic party's general election campaign.

Democratic State Chairman Hullett C. Smith said Kennedy had scheduled a visit to Parkersburg Oct. 9 and Clark has promised to fill one or more speaking engagements to be announced later.

Steel, Unions Hit On Gouging Acts

JACKSON'S MILL, W. Va. (UPI)—An official of the American Farm Bureau Federation said today farmers in the nation are suffering because "big steel, big labor unions are gouging the public for all we will bear."

Addressing the annual convention of the West Virginia Farm Bureau, John C. Lynn, legislative director of the national organization, also charged that "labor unions are exercising monopoly power."

"The ability of labor unions to demand more and get most of what they demand — and to force the wage spiral ever higher — is a grave danger to our whole society," Lynn said.

"Few people and even fewer politicians are willing to face up to the issue. But it must be faced and dealt with if we hope to maintain economic stability, and to prevent the fires of inflation from destroying our free enterprise system."

Health Position Applications Due

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Applications for the position of deputy state health director are now being accepted by the West Virginia Merit System Council, it was announced Monday. The post has been vacant for several years due to lack of funds.

The council also said other jobs will open in the State Health Department including directorships of the Bureau of Dental Health, Bureau of Nutrition, Division of Disease Control and Division of Maternal and Child Health.

Health officers, sanitary engineers, veterinarians, dental clinicians, nurses, public health educators and social workers also are in demand, the council said.

Street Bids Sought

John J. Long, commissioner of streets and public property, yesterday was authorized to advertise for bids on the grading, sewerage and paving of Van Buren Avenues between Cartmell and Euclid avenues.

Use of radioactive isotopes saved $400,000,000 in manufacturing costs during a recent year.

Federalburg Dam Breaks After Rain

Water Several Feet Deep In Caroline County Community

FEDERALBURG, Md. (AP) — An estimated 25 families were evacuated, some business houses were flooded out and the bridge carrying traffic over the main highway through this Eastern Shore town was closed today by flooded Marshyhope Creek.

Water in some homes in the northern part of the town was about five to six feet deep.

O. J. Morgan, president of the Federalburg Fire Co., said a community-owned dam at Smithfield, five miles to the north, broke about 4 a. m., pouring water into the creek swollen by recent heavy rains.

Normally, the creek is from three to four feet deep here. It reached about 10 feet before noon, and was rising slowly.

The bridge on Maryland 318 was closed by State Police.

Flood waters were at the edge of the main street and threatened nearby sections.

Most of the business establishments on the side along the river were closed. They included Zaffere Bakery, Black's Women's Store, Cantner Drug Store and Poole's Men's Store. Other merchants were moving stock to upper floors.

From 8 to 10 inches of rain has fallen in this area in the past few days. The creek is a tributary of the Nanticoke River and drains sections as far north as Hollandsville, Del.

Water was knee deep in the Federalburg Fire station, where members of the volunteer company were on duty to handle calls for assistance.

At Salisbury weather observers reported nearly four inches of rain had fallen since Sunday. The area's average monthly rainfall is 2.97—less than the amount received within the last 48 hours.

Some fields in the area were under water. Fear was expressed that continued wet conditions would cause damage to late corn, soybean and tomato crops.

Ocean City resort establishments suffered some economic loss because of the rains and inundation of several streets for a short time. The week preceding the Labor Day weekend is traditionally one of the busiest for the ocean-side resort.

Residents of Federalburg, which has a population of about 2,000, were awakened about 4 a. m. and alerted to the danger caused by the breaking of the dam.

Grain Prices Steady

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices were mostly steady to firm at the opening today of the Board of Trade.

College Head Says Athletes Should Learn Their Way

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI)—College athletes should learn their way and any institution that overlooks low grades by a sports star is "being unfair to the athlete."

That is the philosophy of Irvin Stewart, who stepped down Monday after 12 years as president of West Virginia University. A stickler on athletes' earning passing grades, Stewart expressed his views on intercollegiate athletics in a farewell statement.

"It seems to me to be perfectly logical to expect college athletes to do satisfactory academic work," he said. "The idea that intercollegiate athletics is for men of less than college mentality who need to have their academic requirements lightened never made sense."

Stewart observed that "an intelligent player has a tremendous advantage over one who is less intelligent." He added that, "like the rest of us," athletes often will try to get by with a minimum of classroom effort to "permit them to do what they want."

"The institution should recognize this and set its requirements so that every athlete must put forth the necessary mental effort required for graduation," Stewart said. "Any institution which does less is being unfair to the athlete, itself and the people it serves."

Composer Succumbs

BERLIN (UPI)—Leo Blech, 87, former conductor of the Berlin State Orchestra and composer of several operas, operettas and songs, died Sunday night.

Fire Building Renovation At Frostburg

FROSTBURG—The Frostburg Fire Department is having the entrance to the second and third floors of the hall renovated and are installing a new aluminum door.

Several years ago a program of modernizing the three floor building was begun. The first phase included the remodeling of the third floor for the use of Teen Town. Floors were laid, lights installed, rest rooms and a snack bar were built. The room has been continuously used since then by the group.

The next phase included the remodeling of the second floor for a lounge and meeting room. A tile floor was laid, acoustical tile put on walls and ceiling, a kitchen built and rest rooms remodeled. An office was also built.

Members of the Teen Town officers made drapes for the lounge and installed them.

With the new entrance now under construction the remodeling will be complete except for a few minor repair and paint jobs.

Schools Open On Thursday In Pendleton

FRANKLIN—The pre-school meeting of all teachers and school bus drivers in Pendleton County will be tomorrow at Franklin High School.

Approximately 2,050 students in the county will end their summer vacations with the beginning of the 1958-59 term this Thursday. A total of 75 teachers have been employed in the county school system.

Arvelia Pitsenbarger, president of the County Education Association, will preside at the teachers' meeting. Appearing on the program will be a representative of the State Department of Education and also other state organizations will have representatives present.

The major part of the afternoon will be taken up in planning the school work in general for the ensuing year. Among the various things to be considered will be plans for taking the county-wide census on September 5.

During the morning tomorrow the 39 school bus drivers will meet to plan their work for the year.

Reports and regulations relative to school bus transportation will be discussed by the county supervisor of transportation, T. J. Clayton, and bus mechanic Russell Blizzard will point out ways and means for caring for equipment.

All buses were inspected and approved by the State Department of Public Safety on August 15, and practically all drivers have qualified for their positions through written and behind-the-wheel driver tests.

County superintendent Floyd J. Dahmer has announced that while most of the schools in the county will again have school lunch programs this year, lunches will not be served until after Labor Day which will be a holiday.

Grant County School Term Opens Friday

PETERSBURG—Books will be the theme this Friday when schools open in Grant County for the first day of the 1958-59 term. All students will enroll on that day except sophomores, juniors and seniors at Petersburg High. The latter group will enroll a week from today.

Schools will be closed on Monday for Labor Day, Friday, September 5, for school census, and Wednesday, September 10, for county Fair Day. Buses will run two hours early on Thursday, September 4, in order for faculties to plan for the school census.

A day of orientation was to be held today in Petersburg for teachers who taught in this county for the first time last year or are teaching this year for the first time in the county. County policies in teaching, grading, record keeping, reports and general information will be presented to this group. The pre-school principals' meeting was this morning before the Orientation Day began for new teachers.

The pre-school workshop for all teachers and principals will be held tomorrow and Thursday at Petersburg Grade School auditorium. The morning session will be an organization session for the workshop after the plans for the new school year have been discussed by the superintendent of schools. The assistant superintendent will outline the program of improvement of instruction which will be begun in the group sessions.

Miss Drusilla Worthington, consultant for Zaner-Bloser Publishing Company, and Miss Beryl Crockett, consultant for World Book Company, will demonstrate better methods and use of their textbooks in writing and arithmetic, respectively, to the groups. Paul Yost, instructor in education at Shepherd College and area supervisor with the State Department of Education, will assist in the planning of the county course of study. Sessions will continue until three o'clock each day when time will be taken for a meeting of school faculties.

Vets' Deputy Director Will Be At Piedmont

PIEDMONT—Paul Avey, deputy director of the West Virginia Department of Veterans Affairs, will be here next Tuesday and on September 16 and 30 at the American Legion Home for the purpose of assisting war veterans, their dependents or beneficiaries with government benefits to which they may be entitled.

Students At Fort Ashby Will Report Next Tuesday

FORT ASHBY—J. William Marker, principal, announced that Fort Ashby Elementary and High School will open for students next Tuesday at 9 a. m. with registration to continue until 11 a. m. for the coming school term.

Faculty members only will report Friday for the full day. The first full day for students will be Wednesday, September 3. The enrollment will be thirty-four more than last year, making a total student body of 344 for the high school.

Seven vacancies have been filled during the summer months. There is still the position of a Junior High teacher to be filled.

New teachers added so far are: Mrs. Mildred G. Shepp, Keyser, a graduate of West Virginia University will replace Mrs. Glenna Jenkins as Home Economics. Mrs. Martha M. Boyles, Middlebourne, W. Va., a graduate of Ohio University, will replace Melvin Woolford, who has been instructor for the past two years as commerce. Woolford has accepted another teaching position in Delaware, Ohio. His wife, Mrs. Mary Woolford, who has been music teacher for the past two years will be replaced by Robert L. Knierim, Wheeling, a graduate of West Liberty State College.

Junior Haines, of Keyser, a graduate of West Virginia University, taught the fifth and sixth grade last year, will be moved into the high school to teach social studies, English and guidance.

Virgil Hull, who has been guidance director and social studies and French teacher for the past five years, was transferred to Keyser High School. Mrs. Sabra Price, a former teacher at the grade school, will replace Haines.

Other new instructors are Robert W. Alvaro, Wiley Ford, a graduate of West Virginia University, who will teach physical science and social studies. Bob Chaney, Wiley Ford, a graduate of Shepherd College, will teach social studies. Ernest Leyh will teach math.

Teachers returning include Mrs. Margaret Umstot, first grade; Mrs. Nelle Weston, second grade; Mrs. Virginia Bloom, third grade; Mrs. Helen Spencer, fourth grade; Mrs. Arvella May, fifth grade; Mrs. Ida Prysock, grade six. Mrs. Alice Lee, English and Journalism; Homer May, English and social studies; Quentin Sayers, coach, physical education and driver education; Edward Riley, science and physical education, and Donald Thorn, vocational agriculture.

The first PTA meeting will be at the new elementary building Thursday, September 4, at 8 p. m. with president George F. Chidester, presiding.

Crabs Ordered As Crabfeast 'Held Over'

FROSTBURG—The Frostburg Fire Department and the Arion Band, who jointly sponsored the fifty-seventh annual crabfeast Sunday, reported that although 8,000 crabs were ordered, the largest number for any of the affairs, they were completely sold out in the middle of the afternoon, this was despite the rainy and foggy weather which forced them indoors at the skating rink building located in the Junior Park.

Spokesmen for the organizations stated that additional crabs have been ordered and will be at the Fire Hall Thursday evening for those persons who had purchased tickets but were late in arriving for their crabs.

This fund-raising project, the only one participated in by both groups, gives them funds to use for uniforms, new equipment and for the annual Halloween parade when prizes are awarded all children.

Cub Pack Corn Roast Scheduled Friday

FROSTBURG—Cub Pack 46, sponsored by the Beall Elementary PTA, will hold a corn roast for the pack and members of the families of boys in the pack. The affair will be at Braddock Park Friday, beginning at 7 p. m.

Well-Baby Clinic Scheduled Thursday

FROSTBURG—The bi-monthly Well-Baby clinic will be held Thursday from 9:30 to 11:30 a. m. in the Health Center of the City Hall. Dr. John B. Davis will be the attending physician. Public health nurses assisting will be Mrs. Margaret Hanson and Mrs. Betty Lou Lindner.

Arion Band To Play At Midland Thursday

FROSTBURG—The Frostburg Arion Band will give a concert Thursday evening in Midland in conjunction with the turning on of the new street lights.

A bus will leave from the band hall at 6 p. m. All band members have been urged to be present in full uniform to participate in the concert.

Visit Relatives

PIEDMONT—Mr. and Mrs. William Middleton and granddaughter, Pamela Martin, Chicago, are visiting relatives in the Tri-Towns and Keyser. Mr. and Mrs. Middleton are former residents of the Tri-Towns.

Although the University of Maryland's football opener is almost a month away, Cumberland's Rod Breedlove is already an All-American.

The former athletic stand-out at Allegany High School has been tabbed for a guard spot on the 1953 preview All-American team as selected for Playboy Magazine.

Teaming with Breedlove at the All-American team are: Al Eucy of Notre Dame. Other linemen are Bob Reifsnider and Ted Bates, Oregon State, tackles; Bob Harrison, Oklahoma, center, and Jerry Wilson, Auburn, and Tom Franchhauser, Purdue, ends.

The Playboy backfield is made up of Fran Curci, Miami (Florida); Lee Grosscup, Utah; John Harnstein, Michigan, and Bob Anderson, Army.

Darrell Royal of Texas is picked as "coach of the year" and Oklahoma is fingered as the likeliest candidate for the national championship, with Miami and Auburn as darkhorses.

Playboy sees Clemson taking the Atlantic Coast Conference title and Maryland jockeying with Duke for position as the league's darkhorse. West Virginia is picked to finish fourth behind Vill.

The Citadel and William & Mary in the Southern Conference. Maryland, states the magazine, boasts a thundering line led by a fabulously talented guard with the silver-screen handle of Rodney Breedlove.

If Breedlove succeeds in making one of the various post-season teams he will be the first Cumberland gridder ever to become a full-fledged All-American.

Sports Keg Residue

The current issue of The Sporting News reveals that Jack Fisher has already won 11 games for the sixth-place Wilson team in the Class B-Columbia League. The former Frostburg Little League, signed by the Orioles after being graduated last year from high school in Georgia, started the season with Knoxville in the Sally League but was sent to Wilson where he would be able to get in more mound work.

The Orioles have high hopes for him reaching the majors within the next couple of years. C. W. (Bill) Welsh, former local softball player, has received congratulatory letters from Governor McKeldin and Mayor D'Alessandro of Baltimore for winning the National Humane League award at the recent convention at Bedford Springs Hotel.

Welsh, while city humane officer, invented a contrivance recognized by the league for its novel and humane approach in capturing strays.

Max Elbin and three other Washington area golf pros have been invited to take three of their members with them and compete in the National Invitation 72-hole club championship tournament at Fred Waring's Shawnee Country Club, Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa., Sept. 8-11.

Max, former Cumberland golfer, has been pro in the exclusive Burning Tree course in Washington for about the past ten years. All records under the present administration were broken last Saturday night at Wheeling Downs for attendance, 8,277 persons paying to see the first running of the West Virginia Derby and wagering a total of $368,257.

Attendance figures show that 112,081 passed through the Wheeling turnstiles during the first 24 days, as compared with 87,365 during the same period last year, an increase of 28.3 per cent.

The mutual handle also shows a 17.5 per cent boost, $5,034.137 having passed through the betting windows for 24 days as compared to $4,294,384 a year ago.

The West Virginia Derby also broke all existing records at the track for a single race, the public wagering $54,733.

The tape-measure homer that the VFW's Vern Penner clouted yesterday against the Elks was probably the longest of the year at Stitches Field, the ball landing high on the bank in right-center.

However, there were one or two others that Vern crashed in previous years which we thought were longer.

Annual Football Clinic, Meeting Scheduled Today

The Allegany County Board of Education will sponsor its annual football clinic and rules interpretation meeting today at 7:30 p. m. in the Board of Education Building, 108 Washington Street.

Conducting the one-day clinic will be William R. Fugitt, of Beckley, W. Va., who is vice president of the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations and executive secretary of the West Virginia Secondary School Activities Commission.

All high school coaches and football officials are invited to attend the session.

Roy Comer, Glenn Smith Get Coaching Jobs

Smith Goes To Paw Paw And Comer To Shore

Two former star athletes from nearby West Virginia high schools have been appointed to coaching positions.

Roy L. Comer of Ridgeley takes over as head football coach and physical-education instructor at Chestertown (Md.) High, while Piedmont's Glenn Smith becomes basketball and baseball mentor at Paw Paw High.

Smith starred on the 1954 Piedmont High team that won 25 games and lost only three. The Lions of Huck Miers copped 21 straight decisions against West Virginia opposition that season before losing 63-54 to Pax in the finals of the Class A state tournament at Morgantown.

Succeeds Sid Roach

Smith, a graduate of the University of Maryland this year, will be making his debut as a coach. He succeeds Sid Roach, the former Romney High stick-out, who is planning to continue his work towards a master's degree and has gone to Charleston, W. Va., where he will serve as one of Dick McElwee's football assistants at Charleston High.

Under Roach, Paw Paw last season won its first sectional tournament but was eliminated by Berkeley Springs in the sectional. The Pirates' overall record was 18-5 and in baseball they showed a 9-2 mark.

According to principal Thomas Small, who made the coaching announcement, the Paw Paw basketball and baseball squads lost three boys through graduation but all of the returnees are veterans of one or two years of play.

Smith is the son of Evers Smith, onetime independent basketball great for Westvaco.

Played At Shepherd

Comer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd D. Comer, Ridgeley, is a 1949 graduate of Ridgeley High where he starred in football and basketball. He played left half-back for the Blackhaws during his senior year, scoring 24 points to finish third in the Potomac Valley Conference.

Comer was a regular guard on the 1948-49 Ridgeley basketball squad which copped the Potomac Valley Conference title with a 10-0 record under Jesse Riegelmeyer.

He also played football and basketball at Shepherd College, from where he received his bachelor of arts degree. Comer is married to the former Joan Rife of Hagerstown and has a son, Jeff. The family is residing in Chestertown.

Rec Playoff Tiffs Slated

Don McIntyre's will tangle with Western Maryland Railway in the first game of a best of three-series at Naval Reserve Field in Rec Softball League.

Keech's Drug Store in the second contest of that series at Post Field in Rec Softball League semi-final playoff action today.

Both games are scheduled to start at 6:15 p. m.

McIntyre's, which finished the regular season tied for third with Keech's on a 12-9 record, holds two previous victories over the Railwaymen. Western Maryland ended the pennant chase behind pennant-winning Local 26 with a 13-6 mark.

The Rubberworkers will be seeking to eliminate Keech's from contention this evening as the teams battle in the second game of the series. Local 26 won the first contest, played yesterday, 13-1, at Naval Reserve.

Frank (Pickles) Doolan spun a four-hitter, two of those coming in the last inning at the Drugmen, in bringing his season's mark to 11-1. The hefty redhead struck out eight and one of the hits he surrendered was Bob Steckman's bases-empty homer which accounted for Keech's only run.

Bill Houdersheldt, with four hits in five trips, Ed Barley, with a three-run homer, and Harry Widdows' double and two singles paced the Rubber Workers' assault.

Bob Scaletta, who was relieved in the fourth by Jim Lease, was the loser.

Caseys, PPG Clash Today; VFW Scores

Second-place Knights of Columbus and fourth-place Pittsburgh Plate Glass launch their semi-final series in the Rocking Chair Softball League this evening when they tangle at Stitches Field, starting at 6 o'clock.

The Knights will send Allan Sheetz, their 14-game winner, to the hill, while the Glassmen are expected to counter with Bill Thompson who was the winning pitcher in nine contests.

Pennant-winning Veterans of Foreign Wars got off to a fast start by edging the third-place BPO Elks, 5 to 3, in the playoff opener yesterday at Stitches Field. Glenn Kauffman chucked a neat three-hitter and drove in the winning run in a well-played tussle which was reeled off in the rapid time of 53 minutes.

Sets Down Last 16
Kauffman was touched for all of the Elks hits and runs in the second inning but after that he was untouchable, setting down in order the last 16 batsmen. The speedy right-hander struck out seven, fanning five Elks in a row at one stretch.

The Vets, meanwhile, picked on the offerings of Dick Klavuhn for seven safeties, getting six of them in the first and fifth when they tallied all of their runs.

"The game took on the appearance of a runaway in the bottom of the first when the Vets lugged Klavuhn for three hits and three runs after one was out. Mil Dean dropped a Texas League, single to right and scored as Jimmy Eckard rammed a triple to right-center. Vern Penner then smashed a towering, distant homer high on the bank in right-center and the Vets were off winging.

Elks Tie Score

However, Klavuhn buckled down and proceeded to battle Kauffman in a pitching duel after his mates tied the score in the second. Klavuhn started the rally with a sizzling shot through the box that Phil Reuschel fielded off Kauffman's glove but Penner dropped the throw at first and the Elks pitcher was safe. Bob Pence and Whip Kreitzburg followed with solid singles. Bernie McGann hit a sacrifice fly and Jack Connolly lined a single off Reuschel's glove to account for the trio of tallies.

After being blanked for three straight innings by Klavuhn, the Vets struck the hammer blow in the fifth. Bub Porter opened by beating out a bunt and Reuschel advanced him with a sacrifice. Kauffman singled through the middle of the diamond to score Porter with the tie-breaker and went to second on the throw to the plate. Then Ted Durbin singled to right to send home Kauffman with an insurance tally that wasn't needed.

In addition to his mighty home run, Penner also beat out an infield hit in the fourth. He was the only player with more than one base knock.

Dear Abby - - -

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am over 21 and have been going with a good-looking divorced man for seven months. He told me he was in love with me and we talked of marriage. I went to his apartment to help him hang pictures and while I was there he got two phone calls. He got nervous and started making up so many lies the told one not to come over because he was having a gin game, and he told the other one she got him out of a shower and he'd call her right back. When I asked who called he lied again and said they were men but I could hear their voices and they were women. If he lied to them and then lied to me, do you think I should quit seeing him?

Colson Takes Over WVU Presidency

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI)

Clyde L. Colson, dean of the College of Law, became West Virginia University's fifth acting president today. He will serve until president-elect Elvis J. Stahr Jr. takes over next Feb. 1.

The last acting president was a Charles T. Neff Jr., who was interim president in 1945-56 before the appointment of Dr. Irvin Stewart who retired Monday after 12 years as head of the institution.

Stahr, who is now vice-chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh, was named new president by the Board of Governors last Aug. 1.

Most Interesting Job

In leaving the university Monday, Stewart said it had been "the most interesting job I've ever held."

Scheduled to return here in September, 1959, as professor of political science, Stewart reiterated that he resigned the presidency "in order that I can return to the classroom as a teacher."

He added that the university presidency "is one of the most challenging and rewarding jobs in the country."

Stewart said increased statewide support of the university was the most satisfying occurrence to him. He also cited improved faculty salaries, enlarged physical facilities and expansion of the scope of the university program as outstanding points of progress.

But he said there is much yet to be done, and that improvement in the public school system should be linked with the university.

"The major thing the state can do to improve public schools is to strengthen the university as the capstone of its educational structure," Stewart said. "As the university becomes more adequately staffed, it can provide greater supporting services to public schools."

Stewart expressed "little confidence in so-called crash programs, which treat symptoms," in discussing how to improve the higher education system. He said college training should be made available to as many persons as possible, but "it would be a mistake to direct too many of them into areas of current shortages."

So To Marry

Stewart and his wife planned to leave today for Casper, Wyo., where their son Richard will be married Thursday.

Assuming the acting presidency of the university, Colson said he planned to carry out the policies established by the WVU Board of Governors and Stewart "insofar as it may be possible for me to do so."

"It would be presumptuous of me to undertake a more ambitious program," Colson said. He added that no basic changes in policy would even be considered without the prior approval of Stahr.

Colson, 57-year-old native of Lumpkin, Ga., joined the university faculty as associate professor of law in 1935. He was promoted to professor in 1938 and to dean upon the retirement of Dean Thomas P. Hardman two years ago.

Besides teaching at the university, Colson has served as legislative draftsman, consultant to various legislative, interunit committees and as technical adviser to the governor. Colson also has been a member and chairman of the WVU Athletic Council and faculty representative to the Southern Conference.

Condemnation Filed

For Naval Facility

FAIRMONT, W. Va. (UPI)—U. S. Atty. Albert M. Morgan has filed condemnation proceedings in U. S. District Court here for 1,650 acres of land to be used as a site for a huge naval radio observatory at Sugar Grove, Pendleton County.

Some 33 acres of the land will be used for a road right-of-way to the main site of the project.

Lead Of Ace Chucks Hand

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

South went right up with dummy's king of spades. He had nothing to gain by playing low. East cashed the ace and queen and followed with the ace of diamonds. West played the eight and East continued the suit whereupon South went right up with his king and proceeded to make the hand by means of a squeeze against West.

All he did was to lead a trump to dummy, ruff dummy's last spade with a high trump and play out the entire trump suit.

He discarded his ten of diamonds on dummy's last trump and West was in order to keep the queen of clubs in order to keep the queen of diamonds, whereupon the ace, king and jack of clubs were all good.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

For Wednesday, August 27, 1958

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries)—This day calls for caution in all activities. Do not be overcautious, timid, or fearful, however. Just be careful. Don't get into situations, co-workers. Gains possible.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus)—Whether it be a hard day or an easy one, you can still keep activities running more smoothly, and people in happier mood if you will keep good humor high. Don't press matters.

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini)—You can increase benefits, gains through calm reflection, patient striving. Don't keep going till fatigue sets in, however.

JUNE 22 to JULY 21 (Cancer)—Put the brakes on any leanings or desires that could cause friction in all activities. You can keep this day peaceful and basically progressive. But, remember, it has some "tricky" spots.

JULY 22 to AUGUST 21 (Leo)—You can advance only through hard work now. Nothing will come easy. However, you should enjoy the small pleasures all with a smile and accept rewards when day is done.

AUGUST 22 to SEPTEMBER 21 (Virgo)—There are indications of gains, increased prestige. Others will respect your self-reliance.

SEPTEMBER 22 to OCTOBER 21 (Libra)—While this day has no strong favorable aspect, be ready to grasp even small opportunities, and stay on a friendly basis with co-workers. Every day can be made profitable in one way or another.

OCTOBER 22 to NOVEMBER 21 (Scorpio)—Mostly favorable vibrations, but you may run into many differing opinions now. Watch your step and be diplomatic. Don't strain, or attempt too much.

NOVEMBER 22 to DECEMBER 21 (Sagittarius)—Your Jupiter's position suggests a need for more consistency, better planning and surer elimination of "little things." You can make this day satisfactory, however, through vigor and good decisions.

DECEMBER 22 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn)—Vixen tendencies. Some people around you are likely to be on edge, nervous, perhaps rightly so. Disappearance, (ab) is a striking factor. A good period for the study of organization and economics.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius)—Small plans are favored over "big deals" now. Details are important, so are side issues in some instances. Use your fine sense of discrimination and don't waste time on non-essentials.

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces)—You can be a most charming, happy relationships between those who must and should work together. Forget personal affairs while you work for the good of the whole. It will prove profitable in the long run.

YOU BORN TODAY have a multitude of the qualities which could lead to success and contentment—if you develop them daily. Among your top assets: a desire for order, harmony; the ability to arouse confidence in others; a healthy curiosity; intuition, perception. Avoid letting a sense of self-importance become conceit; control emotions, imagination. Birthdate of Theodore Dreiser, Novelist; Charles Dawes, American Statesman. (King Features, Inc.)

Fellowship Fund Honors Miss Adkins

WASHINGTON (AP)—Miss Bertha S. Adkins, former Republican women's leader who recently became under secretary of welfare, will be honored with a $50,000 fellowship fund set up in her name. An announcement today said the fund will be administered by the American Assn. of University Women and will provide for an annual award for women's advance study or research in the social sciences. The Bertha Sheppard Adkins Fellowship Fund will become part of the AAUW's two million fellowship trust fund. Miss Adkins, an active member of the AAUW, was for eight years dean of women at Western Maryland College and for four years dean of residence at Bradford College in Massachusetts. She also has long been active in politics. Before her appointment by President Eisenhower to the Welfare Department post, Miss Adkins was director of women's activities for the Republican Party. She is a native of Salisbury, Md.

Youths Nabbed When Stolen Car Stalls

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—James Warren's car broke down at just the right time Monday, while three teen-agers were trying to steal it. Police picked up the youths when they were seen pushing Warren's car through an intersection. Use kitchen tongs to grasp the dishcloth when cleaning the inside of jars or tall vases.

Searchers Comb Bay For Sailor; Fell From Boat

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Searchers continued scanning the waters of Chesapeake Bay today for a missing sailor identified as an electrician's mate from Grafton, W. Va. The U. S. Naval Academy said yesterday the sailor was 25-year-old James Walter Newbrough, missing since Sunday when he fell from a yard boat near the Chesapeake Bay Bridge.

Lead is used in electrical fuses because of its low melting point. A short circuit melts the lead, breaking the circuit before damage is done.

Stone Age men lived for some 9,000 years in Russell Cave, near Bridgeport, Ala.

Bonn, Italy, France Air Mid-East

By WELLINGTON LONG
United Press International

BONN, Germany (UPI)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, in meetings with the premiers of Italy and France during the next four weeks, will attempt to reach an agreed assessment of the Middle East situation.

Adenauer, his advisors say, feels any attempt to prepare a Western plan for future treatment of the Arab world is fruitless unless

Thieves Rob Machine In Police Station

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI)—Burglars during the week end proved they like baiting the lion in his own den. They broke into an automatic coffee machine and got away with $10.87. The machine was in police headquarters.

there first is agreement on the present situation there.

There remains basic disagreement on this point of departure. It remains despite U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' and Italian Premier Amintore Fanfani's blitz visits to see Adenauer late in July and early in August.

The West German chancellor will receive Fanfani for a second meeting at the former's vacation residence on the shores of Lake Como Aug. 31.

He also will have his first meeting with French Premier Charles de Gaulle since the latter took office in De Gaulle's Lorraine home on Sept. 14.

Dulles and Fanfani both have conferred recently with De Gaulle, the former just before and the latter just after the Iraqi revolution which caused the U.S. to land troops in Lebanon and the British to do the same in Jordan.

The apparent air of compromise around the United Nations headquarters in New York has somewhat eased the sense of urgency in diplomatic circles in Europe.

Fanfani, Italian sources report, feels the Middle Eastern economic development scheme President Eisenhower proposed to the United Nations incorporated many of Fanfani's own thoughts.

Thieves Take Man At His Own Word

Whoever went in and walked out with two rifles, an adding machine, a typewriter, a sewing machine and a piggy bank didn't even leave a "thank you" note.

But many details remain to be ironed out, and here is where both Adenauer and Fanfani and, presumably, De Gaulle, believe there first should be an agreed assessment for the Arab problem.

Fanfani, the source say, believes the main aim of Western policy should be to prevent the Arabs falling under Communist governments.

On this point, Adenauer is in complete agreement.

Fanfani believes, however, a series of non-aggression pacts among the Arab states is necessary to preserve peace in the area.

Here, Adenauer disagrees. Adenauer is said to believe in the inevitability of complete Arab union under the leadership of Egypt's Gamal Abdel Nasser. The German believes any Western attempt to stem this process is futile.

U. S. Tourists Get Warning To Stay Clear Of Border

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The State Department has warned American citizens travelling in Austria to stay away from the immediate vicinity of the Hungarian and Czechoslovakian borders.

Department Spokesman Joseph Reap said the Austrian Ministry of Interior warns that "shots from beyond the border, mine explosions, electric barbed wire fences and possibly even abductions threaten anyone in the immediate vicinity of the border."
